Representative Dan Daley's Bill Providing Court Clerks with Public Records Exemptions Passes on the House Floor

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Representative Dan Daley's (D-Coral Springs) legislation, HB 983, aimed at providing essential protections for the privacy and security of Clerks of the Circuit Court, Deputy Clerks, and Clerk of the Circuit Court personnel, has successfully passed the House Floor.

"Court Clerks tirelessly serve our criminal and civil justice system, both inside and outside the courtroom. Clerks deserve to carry out their duties without fear of reprisal. HB 983 shields their personal identifying information from the public record. I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all who contributed to this bill's success. Together, we've taken a significant step toward safeguarding those who uphold the integrity of our judicial system," emphasized Representative Dan Daley.

With unanimous approval on the House floor, HB 983 signifies a significant step forward in ensuring the privacy and security of Court Clerks.
