Representative Skidmore Hosts Second District Dialogue to Discuss Equity and Inclusion in the Education System

BOCA RATON, Fla. – State Representative Kelly Skidmore (D-Boca Raton) will host a virtual conversation via Zoom on Monday, July 26 from 6-7 p.m. with experienced education professionals, Dr. Karline Prophete director of the Cross Cultural Equity Institute for Palm Beach State College, Dr. Cynthia Mruczek coordinator of the Leadership in Special and Inclusive Education certificate program at the University of Kansas, and Dr. Keith Oswald chief of equity and wellness for the Palm Beach School District.

This District Dialogue, which is the second of a summer series, will focus on the who, what, where, why, and how of equity and inclusion in the education system. Attendees can expect to have a conversation that covers the many facets of this important issue from a local and national perspective.

To register for this District Dialogue, please click HERE or watch it on Facebook Live where questions from audience members will be answered as time permits. Registrants may also submit questions in advance by sending an email message to HDIST081@MyFloridaHouse.Gov.

The District Dialogues are conversations with community leaders and constituents to discuss issues that impact daily life. The dialogues will continue to be held on the second and fourth Mondays in August. Forthcoming topics include Workforce Development, and the Blue Economy.
