State Representative Bush to Deliver Funding from the State to the New Horizon After School and Weekend Rehabilitative Program

MIAMI – On Wednesday, July 14 at 11:00 a.m., during a special presentation event, Representative Dr. James Bush III (D-Miami) will ceremonially present the appropriation funds to the New Horizons After School and Weekend Rehabilitative Program that was graciously approved by Governor Ron DeSantis during the 2021 Legislative Session.

“It is a privilege and honor now that the 2021 Legislative and Special Session is over, and Governor Ron DeSantis has officially signed off on the budget. I’m happy to report that House Bill 3363, in the amount of $300,000 dollars, was one of the appropriation bills approved. Thank you Governor DeSantis for your support. This approval allows for the continued funding of a critical development program. That gives opportunity for the education and after school program for our community. This is what I strive to accomplish every single day for my community,” said Representative Bush.

Representative James Bush III will be available to speak and answer questions after the presentation event.
