State Representative Yvonne Hinson Partners with CareerSource CLM and City Councilman Ire Bethea, Sr. to Host Job Fair

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – State Representative Yvonne Hinson (D-Gainesville) will host a Career Connections Fair in partnership with CareerSource Citrus Levy Marion and Ocala City Councilman Ire Bethea, Sr. from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 8, 2021 at the College of Central Florida’s Hampton Center.

The Career Connections Job Fair is free and open to all job seekers. Opportunities include a variety of industries and all job levels, including entry-level positions. High school diplomas are not required. Those interested in attending are asked to register ahead of time at bit.ly/ConnectCareers.

“Quality employment is a solid foundation on which people rebuild their lives. Employment provides the opportunity for individuals to gain experience, build up wealth, and change their lives for the better. Community members benefit when are provided quality employment options, and I am so excited to provide that opportunity to them,” said Representative Hinson.

CareerSource CLM’s CEO Rusty Skinner said, “We are so excited to team up with Rep. Hinson, Councilman Bethea, and CF to bring such outstanding opportunities to the community. We are equally excited to share the word that there are plenty of jobs available. Anyone who wants employment stands a very good chance of getting hired, and we are here to help.”

Candidates with all backgrounds and experience levels are encouraged to attend.
