

Attending a Committee Meeting

- All committee meetings are live-streamed on <https://thefloridachannel.org/>.
- Persons who wish to provide testimony at a meeting where public testimony is solicited may access electronic appearance records at www.myfloridahouse.gov up to one hour before the meeting starts. After that time, they may fill out an appearance record at the meeting.
- Members of the public who cannot attend a committee meeting in person but would like to offer comments on legislation have the option to email their written testimony to the committee members directly through the electronic appearance record found at www.myfloridahouse.gov.
- Seating in the audience is available on a first-come, first-served basis.
