HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES LOCAL BILL AMENDMENT FORM

Prior to consideration of a substantive amendment to a local bill, the chair of the legislative delegation must certify, by signing this Amendment Form, that a majority of the legislative delegation approves the amendment. House local bill policy does not require a delegation meeting to formally approve an amendment. All substantive committee, subcommittee, and floor amendments must be accompanied by a completed original Amendment Form, which has been provided to and reviewed by staff of the Local Administration, Federal Affairs & Special Districts Subcommittee prior to consideration. An Amendment Form is not required for technical amendments.

Districts Sub	ocommittee prior to consideration. An Amendment Form is not required for technical amendments.
