2 An act relating to public records; amending s. 119.0712,
3 F.S.; providing an exemption from public records
4 requirements for information held by a state or federal 5 regulatory, administrative, or criminal justice agency
6 that is made available to the Office of Financial 7 Regulation only on a confidential or similarly restricted 8 basis or that is developed as part of a joint or 9 multiagency investigation or examination; specifying
10 conditions under which the Office of Financial Regulation 11 may obtain and use such information; providing for 12 retroactive effect of the exemption; providing for future
13 review and repeal of the exemption; providing a statement
14 of public necessity; providing an effective date.

15
16 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

17
18 Section 1. Subsection (3) is added to section 119.0712,
19 Florida Statutes, to read:

20 119.0712 Executive branch agency-specific exemptions from 21 inspection or copying of public records.—

22 (3) OFFICE OF FINANCIAL REGULATION.—

23 (a)1. Information held by a state or federal regulatory,
24 administrative, or criminal justice agency that is made
25 available to the Office of Financial Regulation only on a 26 confidential or similarly restricted basis or that is developed
27 as part of a joint or multiagency investigation or examination

HB 677

28 is confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art.
29 I of the State Constitution.

30 2. The Office of Financial Regulation may obtain and use 31 the information in accordance with the conditions imposed by the 32 agency providing the information or in accordance with the 33 requirements imposed as a condition of participating in a joint 34 or multiagency examination or investigation.

35 3. This exemption applies to information held by the 36 office before, on, or after the effective date of this 37 exemption.

38 (b) This subsection is subject to the Open Government
39 Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand 40 repealed on October 2, 2016, unless reviewed and saved from 41 repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

42 Section 2. It is the finding of the Legislature that it is 43 a public necessity that information held by any state or federal 44 regulatory, administrative, or criminal justice agency that is 45 made available to the Office of Financial Regulation only on a 46 confidential or similarly restricted basis or is developed as 47 part of a joint or multiagency investigation or examination be 48 held confidential and exempt from public records requirements.
49 This exemption is necessary to ensure the effective and 50 efficient administration of the regulatory programs administered 51 by the Office of Financial Regulation, which programs would be 52 significantly impaired by the absence of the exemption. The 53 exemption is necessary to facilitate the Office of Financial 54 Regulation's access to information that could assist it in 55 pursuing violations of the laws and regulations under its jurisdiction. Without this exemption, the Office of Financial Regulation's ability to access information held by the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network and other governmental agencies could be compromised. The exemption is necessary to enable the Office of Financial Regulation to participate in joint or multiagency investigations and examinations. Without the exemption, the office would be unable to participate in these activities, which would impair the office's ability to leverage its limited resources. Because the exemption stipulates that the use of information obtained by the office will be in accordance with the conditions imposed by the agency providing the information or in accordance with the requirements imposed as a condition of participating in a joint or multiagency examination or investigation, an agency providing information to the office or participating in a joint or multiagency investigation can do so with the knowledge that such information, examination, or investigation will not be compromised. The ability to share information and coordinate examinations and investigations with other governmental agencies also benefits the regulated persons and entities. Without information sharing and coordination, governmental agencies may be required to conduct duplicative independent investigations or examinations to meet their regulatory responsibilities. With this exemption, that burden can be reduced or eliminated through joint, concurrent, or alternating examinations, or with offsite reviews of the other governmental agency's investigation or examination results. For these reasons, the Legislature finds that it is a public

85 | Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.
