169 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a

171 custodial agency.

172 Section 2. (1) The Legislature finds that it is a public
173 necessity that specified personal information relating to active 174 or former law enforcement personnel, including correctional and 175 correctional probation officers, personnel of the Department of 176 Children and Family Services whose duties include the 177 investigation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, fraud, theft, or

181 governments whose responsibilities include revenue collection
182 and enforcement or child support enforcement, as well as 183 personal information relating to the spouses and children of 184 such personnel, be made confidential and exempt from s.
185 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State 186 Constitution. In the course of their occupational duties, these 187 employees routinely interact with individuals who have criminal 188 records or who are currently engaged in or suspected of criminal 189 activity. These employees also interact with the victims of 190 crimes. By participating in law enforcement activities, these 191 employees provide a valuable public service. However, 192 individuals with whom the employees interact in the course of 193 their duties may become disgruntled by the actions taken by the 194 employees or by legal proceedings begun against them as a result
195 of the employees' actions. This could result in the employees
196 and their families becoming targets for acts of violence.

HB 1027

Disclosure of the information protected by the public records exemption in this act would jeopardize the safety of these employees and their families. Therefore, it is the finding of the Legislature that it is a public necessity to make confidential and exempt from public records requirements personal information concerning active or former law enforcement personnel, including correctional and correctional probation officers, personnel of the Department of Children and Family Services whose duties include the investigation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, fraud, theft, or other criminal activities, personnel of the Department of Health whose duties are to support the investigation of child abuse or neglect, and personnel of the Department of Revenue or local governments whose responsibilities include revenue collection and enforcement or child support enforcement, as well as the names of the spouses and children of such employees.

(2) It is the further finding of the Legislature that it is a public necessity that specified personal information relating to current or former firefighters certified in compliance with s. 633.35, Florida Statutes, as well as personal information relating to the spouses and children of such firefighters, be made confidential and exempt from s. 119.07(1), Florida Statutes, and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. In the course of their occupational duties, firefighters become involved in highly emotionally charged situations in which deaths or significant property damage may occur. An individual involved in such a situation may associate the firefighters with the situation if the outcome is negative,

225 and may even blame the firefighters for such an outcome.
226 Firefighters may also become involved in criminal arson
227 investigations, the targets of which may become disgruntled by 228 the firefighters' role in legal proceedings begun against them.
229 This could result in the firefighters and their families
230 becoming targets for acts of violence. Disclosure of the 231 information protected by the public records exemption in this 232 act would jeopardize the safety of these firefighters and their 233 families. Therefore, it is the finding of the Legislature that 234 it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone 235 numbers, social security numbers, and photographs of current or 236 former firefighters certified in compliance with s. 633.35,
237 Florida Statutes, the names, home addresses, telephone numbers,
238 social security numbers, photographs, and places of employment
239 of the spouses and children of such firefighters, and the names 240 and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the 241 children of such firefighters be made confidential and exempt
242 from public records requirements.

243 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2011.
