HB 1089

2012

169 2. An agency that is the custodian of the information 170 specified in subparagraph 1. and that is not the employer of the 171 officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in 172 subparagraph 1. shall maintain the exempt status of that 173 information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other 174 person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a 175 written request for maintenance of the exemption to the 176 custodial agency.

177 Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public 178 necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, and 179 photographs of current and former investigators and inspectors
180 of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, the 181 names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of 182 employment of the spouses and children of such current or former 183 investigators and inspectors, and the names and locations of 184 schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such 185 current or former investigators and inspectors be made exempt
186 from public records requirements. The Legislature finds that the 187 release of such identifying and location information might place
188 the department's investigators and inspectors and their family 189 members in danger of physical and emotional harm from 190 disgruntled individuals whose business or professional practice 191 have come under the scrutiny of investigators and inspectors of 192 the department. The Legislature further finds that the harm that 193 may result from the release of such personal identifying and 194 location information outweighs any public benefit that may be 195 derived from the disclosure of the information.

196 Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012.
