addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such defenders or counsel; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such defenders or counsel are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2015, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

k. The home addresses, telephone numbers, and photographs of current and former investigators and inspectors of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation; the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such current or former investigators and inspectors; and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such current or former investigators and inspectors are exempt from s. 119.07(1) and s. 24(a), Art. I of the State Constitution if the investigator or inspector has made reasonable efforts to protect such information from being accessible through other means available to the public. This sub-subparagraph is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.15 and shall stand repealed on October 2, 2017, unless reviewed and saved from repeal through reenactment by the Legislature.

2. An agency that is the custodian of the information specified in subparagraph 1. and that is not the employer of the officer, employee, justice, judge, or other person specified in subparagraph 1. shall maintain the exempt status of that information only if the officer, employee, justice, judge, other person, or employing agency of the designated employee submits a written request for maintenance of the exemption to the custodial agency.

Section 2. The Legislature finds that it is a public necessity that the home addresses, telephone numbers, and photographs of current and former investigators and inspectors of the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, the names, home addresses, telephone numbers, and places of employment of the spouses and children of such current or former investigators and inspectors, and the names and locations of schools and day care facilities attended by the children of such current or former investigators and inspectors be made exempt from public records requirements. The Legislature finds that the release of such identifying and location information might place the department's investigators and inspectors and their family members in danger of physical and emotional harm from disgruntled individuals whose business or professional practice have come under the scrutiny of investigators and inspectors of the department. The Legislature further finds that the harm that may result from the release of such personal identifying and location information outweighs any public benefit that may be derived from the disclosure of the information.

Section 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 2012.
