COMPANION BILLS:	CS/CS/SB 588	GOVERNOR'S ACTION:	Approved

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

CS/CS/HB 409 passed the House on April 11, 2014. The bill was amended by the Senate on April 28, 2014, and subsequently passed the House on May 1, 2014. The bill includes portions of CS/CS/HB 1029.

Section 825.103, F.S., defines "exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult," (vulnerable adult) as:

- Knowingly, by deception or intimidation, obtaining or using, or endeavoring to obtain or use, a vulnerable adult's property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the property, or to benefit someone other than the vulnerable adult, by a person who stands in a position of trust and confidence with the adult, or has a business relationship with the adult; or
- Breaching a fiduciary duty to a vulnerable adult by the person's guardian or agent under a power of attorney which results in an unauthorized appropriation, sale, or transfer of property.

The bill deletes the requirement that a person use deception or intimidation to obtain or use a vulnerable adult's funds, assets, or property. The bill specifies that "unauthorized appropriation" occurs when a vulnerable adult does not receive reasonably equivalent financial value in goods or services or when fiduciaries violate specified duties. The bill also creates additional instances that constitute exploitation of a vulnerable adult.

The bill also:

- Decreases the property threshold values for exploitation of vulnerable adults offenses;
- Creates a permissive presumption that specified property transfers are the result of exploitation;
- Requires the court in specified cases to return the vulnerable adult's property before trial if, after conducting an evidentiary hearing, the court makes certain findings; and
- Limits the admissibility of an out-of-court statement to instances when a vulnerable adult is unavailable.

The bill amends s. 817.568, F.S., to make it a second degree felony for any person to willfully and without authorization fraudulently use the personal identification information (PII) of specified individuals, without first obtaining their consent. The bill requires the court to impose a $1,001 surcharge on persons convicted of any crime in s. 817.568, F.S. The bill creates s. 943.0412, F.S., to establish the Identity Theft and Fraud Grant Program within the Florida Department of Law Enforcement with the purpose to award grants to support local law enforcement agencies in the investigation and enforcement of PII theft and fraud.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met in March 2014, and determined that CS/CS/HB 409 and CS/CS/HB 1029 will have an insignificant impact on state prison beds

The bill was approved by the Governor on June 20, 2014, ch. 2014-200, L.O.F., and will become effective on October 1, 2014.

I. SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION

A. EFFECT OF CHANGES:

Elderly and Disabled Populations

The 2010 Census recorded the greatest number and proportion of people aged 65 and over in the history of the United States - 40,300,000, or 13% of the total population.¹ In 2010, Florida had the highest proportion of people over the age of 65, making up 17% of the total state population.²

In 2011, there were 11,468,487 people aged 18 to 64 in Florida.³ Of that number of people, 1,131,661, or 9.9%, had at least one disability.⁴ The number of individuals aged 65 and older in Florida in 2011 totaled 3,296,861.⁵ Of that number of people, 1,136,372, or 34.5%, had at least one disability.⁶

Nationwide, life expectancies of individuals reaching the ages of 65 and 85 are increasing. Individuals who survive to the age of 65 can be expected to live another 19.2 years.⁷ As the population of elderly and disabled persons in Florida increases, so does the pool of potential victims of abuse.

Financial Exploitation of Elderly Persons and Disabled Adults

According to the National Center on Elder Abuse, financial exploitation of the elderly includes “the illegal or improper use of an elder’s funds, property, or assets.”⁸ For example, forging an older person’s signature, misusing or stealing an older person’s money or possessions, coercing or deceiving an older person into signing a document, and improperly using a conservatorship, guardianship, or power of attorney are examples of financial exploitation.⁹ Similar offenses are often committed against disabled adults, who can be equally vulnerable to financial crimes.

Financial exploitation of the elderly and disabled is reported less than other forms of abuse. It is believed that only 1 in 14 cases of financial exploitation against disabled adults are reported and that the yearly number of cases nationwide could exceed 850,000.¹⁰ The “typical” victim of financial exploitation is between 70 and 89 years of age, Caucasian, female, frail, and cognitively impaired.¹¹ It

Florida Law – “Exploitation of an Elderly Person or Disabled Adult”

Section 825.101, F.S., defines the following terms:

- “Elderly person” means a person 60 years of age or older who is suffering from the infirmities of aging as manifested by advanced age or organic brain damage, or other physical, mental, or emotional dysfunctioning to the extent that the ability to provide adequately for his or her own care is impaired; and
- “Disabled adult” means a person 18 years or older who suffers from physical or mental incapacitation due to developmental disability, organic brain damage, or mental illness, or has at least one physical or mental limitation that restricts his or her ability to perform normal activities of daily living.

Section 825.103(1), F.S., defines exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult (vulnerable adult) as:

- (a) Knowingly, by deception¹³ or intimidation,¹⁴ obtaining or using, or endeavoring to obtain or use, a vulnerable adult’s funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the vulnerable adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the vulnerable adult, by a person who:
 - Stands in a position of trust and confidence with the vulnerable adult; or
 - Has a business relationship with the vulnerable adult;
- (b) Obtaining or using, endeavoring to obtain or use, or conspiring with another to obtain or use a vulnerable adult’s funds, assets, or property with the intent to temporarily or permanently deprive the vulnerable adult of the use, benefit, or possession of the funds, assets, or property, or to benefit someone other than the vulnerable adult, by a person who knows or reasonably should know that the vulnerable adult lacks the capacity to consent,¹⁵ or
- (c) Breaching a fiduciary duty to a vulnerable adult by the person’s guardian or agent under a power of attorney which results in an unauthorized appropriation, sale, or transfer of property.

If the funds, assets, or property involved in a violation of the offense are:

- Valued at $100,000 or more, it is a first degree felony;¹⁶
- Valued at $20,000 or more but less than $100,000, it is a second degree felony;¹⁷ and
- Valued at less than $20,000, it is a third degree felony.¹⁸

¹³ Section 825.101(3), F.S., defines “deception” as misrepresenting or concealing a material fact relating to: services rendered, disposition of property, or use of property, when such services or property are intended to benefit an elderly person or disabled adult; terms of a contract or agreement entered into with an elderly person or disabled adult; or an existing or preexisting condition of any property involved in a contract or agreement entered into with an elderly person or disabled adult; or using any misrepresentation, false pretense, or false promise in order to induce, encourage, or solicit an elderly person or disabled adult to enter into a contract or agreement.

¹⁴ Section 825.101(8), F.S., defines “intimidation” as the communication by word or act to an elderly person or disabled adult that the elderly person or disabled adult will be deprived of food, nutrition, clothing, shelter, supervision, medicine, medical services, money, or financial support or will suffer physical violence.

¹⁵ Section 825.101(9), F.S., defines “lacks capacity to consent” as an impairment by reason of mental illness, developmental disability, organic brain disorder, physical illness or disability, chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, short-term memory loss, or other cause, that causes an elderly person or disabled adult to lack sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate reasonable decisions concerning the elderly person’s or disabled adult’s person or property.

¹⁶ A first degree felony is punishable by up to 30 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

¹⁷ A second degree felony is punishable by up to 15 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

¹⁸ A third degree felony is punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S.

The offenses listed above are currently ranked at level 8, level 7, and level 6, respectively, for purposes of the Criminal Punishment Code offense severity ranking chart.¹⁹

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends paragraph (a) of the definition of “exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult” to delete the requirement that a person use deception or intimidation to obtain or use a vulnerable adult’s funds, assets, or property.²⁰ This will allow a prosecutor to pursue charges against an individual who exploits a vulnerable adult in a broader range of instances.

The bill expands paragraph (c) of the definition of “exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult” to include trustees who are individuals (rather than only guardians and agents) and specifies that an “unauthorized appropriation” occurs when a:

- Vulnerable adult does not receive the reasonably equivalent financial value in goods or services; or
- Fiduciary appointed under chs. 709, 736, and 744, F.S., violates specified duties.

The bill creates additional instances that constitute “exploitation of an elderly person or disabled adult” by adding the following paragraphs:

- (d) Misappropriating, misusing, or transferring without authorization money belonging to an elderly person or disabled adult from an account in which the elderly person or disabled adult placed the funds, owned the funds, and was the sole contributor or payee of the funds before the misappropriation, misuse, or unauthorized transfer. This paragraph only applies to the following types of accounts:
1. Personal accounts;
 2. Joint accounts created with the intent that only the elderly person or disabled adult enjoys all rights, interests, and claims to moneys deposited into such account; or
 3. Convenience accounts created in accordance with s. 655.80, F.S.; or
- (e) Intentionally or negligently failing to effectively use a vulnerable adult’s income and assets for the necessities required for that person’s support and maintenance, by a caregiver²¹ or a person who stands in a position of trust and confidence with the vulnerable adult.

The bill lowers the property threshold amounts applicable to s. 825.103, F.S., providing that if the funds, assets, or property involved in a violation of the offense are:

- Valued at $50,000 or more, it is a first degree felony;
- Valued at $10,000 or more but less than $50,000, it is a second degree felony; and
- Valued at less than $10,000, it is a third degree felony.

In cases where the taking of or loss of the vulnerable adult’s property is valued at more than $5,000 and the property belonging to the victim is seized from the defendant pursuant to a search warrant, the bill requires the court to:

- Conduct an evidentiary hearing to determine if the defendant unlawfully obtained the victim’s property; and
- Order that the property be returned to the victim before trial if the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the defendant unlawfully obtained the property.

¹⁹ The Criminal Punishment Code applies to sentencing for felony offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998. Criminal offenses are ranked in the “offense severity ranking chart” from level one (least severe) to level ten (most severe) and are assigned points based on the severity of the offense as determined by the legislature. If an offense is not listed in the ranking chart, it defaults to a ranking based on the degree of the felony. A defendant’s sentence is calculated based, in part, on points assigned for the offense severity ranking. The points are added in order to determine the “lowest permissible sentence” for the offense. Section 921.0022, F.S.

²⁰ The bill also deletes the definitions of the terms “deception” and “intimidation” as they are no longer applicable to ch. 825, F.S.

²¹ Section 825.101(2), F.S., defines “caregiver” to mean a person who has been entrusted with or has assumed responsibility for the care or the property of an elderly person or disabled adult. “Caregiver” includes, but is not limited to, relatives, court-appointed or voluntary guardians, adult household members, neighbors, health care providers, and employees and volunteers of facilities as defined in s. 825.101(7), F.S.

The evidentiary hearing is for restitution purposes only, and the court's finding that the defendant unlawfully obtained the property is inadmissible at trial and does not give rise to any inference that the defendant has committed an offense under s. 825.103, F.S.

The bill makes conforming changes to ss. 775.0844 and 921.0022, F.S., and reenacts s. 772.11, F.S., relating to civil remedy for theft or exploitation, to incorporate changes made by the bill.

Permissive Presumption for Financial Exploitation of Elderly Persons

Permissive Presumptions

A presumption in a legal proceeding is an assumption of the existence of a fact which is in reality unproven by direct evidence.²² A presumption is derived from another fact or group of facts that has been proven in the action.²³ There are two types of presumptions: conclusive presumptions, which require the jury to find the presumed fact if the underlying facts are proved; and permissive presumptions, which allow, but do not require, the jury to find the presumed fact if it finds the underlying fact to be true.²⁴

Hundreds of presumptions exist in American jurisprudence.²⁵ There are several premises that support the creation of presumptions in the law, including fairness, the desire to advance substantive policies, and the need for some procedure to resolve certain issues that could not otherwise be resolved due to a lack of proof.²⁶ The strongest justification for most presumptions is the probabilistic determination that the existence of certain facts can be logically inferred from other facts.²⁷

Prosecutions of Financial Exploitation of Elderly Persons

Prosecutions under s. 825.103, F.S., often face significant roadblocks due to the difficulty in proving that what may superficially look like voluntary gifts or loans is actually exploitation.²⁸ Exploited elders frequently are unable, and sometimes unwilling, to effectively assist prosecutors.²⁹ Prosecutions are further complicated by the fact that the transactions often occur in secret, and that often times the elderly person may not be a good witness as a result of cognitive or other impairments.³⁰

Section 825.103, F.S., does not currently provide any presumptions.

Effect of the Bill

The bill creates a permissive presumption in s. 825.103, F.S., that an inter vivos transfer of money or property by a person 65 or older with the following characteristics was the result of exploitation:

- The property transferred is valued in excess of $10,000 at the time of the transfer;³¹
- The property is transferred to a nonrelative who knew the elderly person for fewer than 2 years before the first transfer; and
- The elderly person did not receive the reasonably equivalent financial value in goods or services from the transfer.

This presumption applies regardless of whether the transfer or transfers are denoted by the parties as a gift or loan. However, the presumption does not apply to a valid loan evidenced in writing that includes definite repayment dates, unless repayment of such loan is in default, in whole or in part, for more than 65 days. The bill provides exemptions from the presumption for:

- Persons who are in the business of making loans; or
- Bona fide charitable donations to nonprofit organizations that qualify for tax exempt status under the Internal Revenue Code.

The bill also requires the court to instruct the jury that:

- They may, but are not required to, draw an inference of exploitation upon proof beyond a reasonable doubt of the facts listed in this subsection; and
- The presumption imposes no burden of proof on the defendant.

This presumption does not apply to a disabled adult, unless such disabled adult is also 65 years of age or older.

Hearsay Exception for Vulnerable Adults

Hearsay in Criminal Cases

“Hearsay” is a statement,³² other than one made by the declarant³³ while testifying at trial or a hearing,³⁴ offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted.³⁵ Currently, hearsay statements are not admissible at trial unless a statutory exception applies.³⁶

Section 90.803(24), F.S., creates a hearsay exception specifically relating to vulnerable adults. The statute specifies that unless the source of information or the method or circumstances by which the statement is reported indicates a lack of trustworthiness, an out-of-court statement made by a vulnerable adult describing any act of abuse or neglect, any act of exploitation, the offense of battery or aggravated battery or assault or aggravated assault or sexual battery, or any other violent act on the declarant vulnerable adult, not otherwise admissible, is admissible in evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding if:

- The court finds in a hearing conducted outside the presence of the jury that the time, content, and circumstances of the statement provide sufficient safeguards of reliability;³⁷ and
- The vulnerable adult either:
 - Testifies; or
 - Is unavailable as a witness, provided that there is corroborative evidence of the abuse or offense. Unavailability must include a finding by the court that the vulnerable adult’s participation in the trial or proceeding would result in a substantial likelihood of severe emotional, mental, or physical harm, in addition to findings pursuant to s. 90.804(1), F.S.³⁸

³² A “statement” is either an oral or written assertion or nonverbal conduct of a person if it is intended by the person as an assertion.

Section 90.801(1)(a), F.S.

³³ The “declarant” is the person who made the statement. Section 90.801(1)(b), F.S.

³⁴ Often referred to simply as an “out-of-court statement.”

³⁵ Section 90.801(1)(c), F.S.

³⁶ Section 90.802, F.S.

³⁷ In making its determination, the court may consider the mental and physical age and maturity of the elderly person or disabled adult, the nature and duration of the abuse or offense, the relationship of the victim to the offender, the reliability of the assertion, the reliability of the elderly person or disabled adult, and any other factor deemed appropriate. Section 90.803(24)(a)1., F.S.

³⁸ Section 90.804(1), F.S., specifies that “unavailability as a witness” means that the declarant:

- Is exempted by a ruling of a court on the ground of privilege from testifying concerning the subject matter of the declarant’s statement;
- Persists in refusing to testify concerning the subject matter of the declarant’s statement despite an order of the court to do so;
- Has suffered a lack of memory of the subject matter of his or her statement so as to destroy the declarant’s effectiveness as a witness during the trial;
- Is unable to be present or to testify at the hearing because of death or because of then-existing physical or mental illness or infirmity; or
- Is absent from the hearing, and the proponent of a statement has been unable to procure the declarant’s attendance or testimony by process or other reasonable means.

The party seeking to introduce a hearsay statement under the exception at s. 90.803, F.S., bears the burden of establishing that the declarant is unavailable as a witness at a pretrial hearing.³⁹

Confrontation Clause and the Admissibility of Hearsay Statements

Since the hearsay exception for vulnerable adults was enacted,⁴⁰ the United States Supreme Court (Court) has held the admission of certain out-of-court statements violates the Confrontation Clause of the Sixth Amendment.^{41,42} In Crawford, the Court held that before an out-of-court statement that is testimonial in nature⁴³ can be admissible in a criminal proceeding the Confrontation Clause requires the:

- Declarant to be unavailable;⁴⁴ and
- Defendant to have had a prior opportunity to cross-examine such declarant.⁴⁵

The Court later held that the distinction of whether evidence is testimonial or nontestimonial in nature rests on the primary purpose of the statement, specifically:

Statements are nontestimonial when made in the course of police interrogation under circumstances objectively indicating that the primary purpose of the interrogation is to enable police assistance to meet an ongoing emergency. They are testimonial when the circumstances objectively indicate that there is no such ongoing emergency, and that the primary purpose of the interrogation is to establish or prove past events potentially relevant to later criminal prosecution.⁴⁶

Further, in State v. Hosty, the Florida Supreme Court has examined s. 90.803(24), F.S., in light of Crawford and held that the Confrontation Clause requires the declarant to be unavailable for testimonial hearsay statements to be admissible.⁴⁷

The statute is not currently in conformance with these rulings since it states certain hearsay statements may be admitted even if the declarant testifies.

Effect of the Bill

The bill amends s. 90.803(24), F.S., deleting the language that allows a testimonial hearsay statement to be admissible even if the declarant testifies, thus conforming this exception to the holding in Crawford and Hosty.

Even though not stated in the statute, the requirement that the accused must have a prior opportunity to cross examine still applies to the admission of these types of statements based on case law.

³⁹ See Jones v. State, 678 So.2d 309, 314 (Fla. 1996).

⁴² The Sixth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution provides, in part: "In all criminal prosecutions....the accused shall enjoy the right to...be confronted with the witnesses against him."

⁴³ The Court held that "testimonial evidence" includes at a minimum "prior testimony at a preliminary hearing, before a grand jury, or at a former trial; and to police interrogations." Crawford, 124 S.Ct. at 1374. The Court also cited to other opinions it has rendered about what constitutes "testimonial evidence," including affidavits, custodial examinations, prior testimony that the defendant was unable to cross-examine, or similar pretrial statements that declarants would reasonably expect to be used prosecutorially; or extrajudicial statements... contained in formalized testimonial materials, such as affidavits, depositions, prior testimony, or confessions. Crawford, 124 S.Ct. at 1364.

Identity Theft

Florida has the nation's highest rate of identity theft in the country.⁴⁸ The Federal Trade Commission reports that in 2012, south Florida led the country with 645 identity theft complaints per 100,000 people.⁴⁹ Tech security expert Alan Crowetz, believes that Florida's large transient and tourist population may be contributing to Florida's identify theft ranking.⁵⁰ "You come here, you are on public Wi-Fi and unknown hotels," he said. "If someone rips you off, the next day you may not even be in the same city anymore, ID thieves act fast and often prey on older, less tech-savvy people."⁵¹

Criminal Use of Personal Identification Information

Section 817.568, F.S., attempts to address the identity theft issue by imposing penalties for the criminal use of personal identification information. The statute makes it a third degree felony for a person to willfully and without authorization fraudulently use, or possess with intent to fraudulently use, personal identification information concerning an individual without first obtaining that individual's consent. A person who fraudulently uses personal identification information as proscribed above:

- Commits a second degree felony, punishable by a three-year minimum mandatory sentence, if the pecuniary benefit, the value of the services received, the payment sought to be avoided, or the amount of the injury or fraud perpetrated is $5,000 or more or if the person fraudulently uses the personal identification information of 10 or more individuals, but fewer than 20 individuals, without their consent;
- Commits a first degree felony, punishable by a five-year minimum mandatory sentence, if the pecuniary benefit, the value of the services received, the payment sought to be avoided, or the amount of the injury or fraud perpetrated is $50,000 or more, or if the person fraudulently used the personal identification information of 20 or more but fewer than 30 individuals; or
- Commits a first degree felony, punishable by a 10-year minimum mandatory sentence, if the pecuniary benefit, the value of the services received, the payment sought to be avoided, or the amount of the injury or fraud perpetrated is $100,000 or more, or if the person fraudulently used the personal identification information of 30 or more individuals.⁵²

The penalty is enhanced for crimes when the victim is a minor. Subsections (6) and (7) of the statute make it a second degree felony for a person:

- To willfully and without authorization fraudulently use personal identification information concerning an individual who is less than 18 years of age without first obtaining the consent of that individual or of his or her legal guardian.
- Who is in the relationship of parent or legal guardian, or who otherwise exercises custodial authority over an individual who is less than 18 years of age, to willfully and fraudulently use personal identification information of that individual.

"Personal identification information" is defined as any name or number that may be used, alone or in conjunction with any other information, to identify a specific individual including any:

- Name, postal or electronic mail address, telephone number, social security number, date of birth, mother's maiden name, official state-issued or United States-issued driver's license or identification number, alien registration number, government passport number, employer or taxpayer identification number, Medicaid or food assistance account number, bank account

- Unique electronic identification number, address, or routing code;

Effect of the Bill

The bill expands the application of s. 817.568(6) and (7), F.S., enhancing the criminal penalties for a person to fraudulently use the personal identification information of a person who is 60 years of age or older, as well as a person less than 18 years of age.

The bill also enhances the penalties for personal identification information crimes against specified victims. The bill creates subsection (11) of s. 817.568, F.S., making it a second degree felony for any person to willfully and without authorization fraudulently use the personal identification information of an individual, without first obtaining their consent, who is:

- 60 years of age or older;
- A disabled adult as defined in s. 825.101, F.S.;
- A public servant as defined in s. 838.014, F.S.;
- A veteran as defined in s. 1.01, F.S.;
- A first responder as defined in s. 125.01045, F.S.;
- An individual who is employed by the State of Florida; or
- An individual who is employed by the Federal Government.

The bill requires the court to impose a $1,001 surcharge on persons convicted of any crime in s. 817.568, F.S. Payment of the surcharge must be a condition of probation, community control, or any other court-ordered supervision and may not be waived by the court. If a defendant has been ordered to pay restitution in accordance with s. 775.089, F.S., the $1,001 surcharge must be included in a judgment. The bill allocates the surcharge as follows:

- $500 of the surcharge is deposited into the Florida Department of Law Enforcement's (FDLE) Operating Trust Fund for FDLE to provide grants to local law enforcement agencies to investigate the criminal use of personal identification information;
- $250 of the surcharge is deposited into the State Attorneys Revenue Trust Fund for the purpose of funding prosecutions of offenses relating to the criminal use of personal identification information;
- $250 of the surcharge is deposited into the Public Defenders Revenue Trust Fund for the purposes of indigent criminal defense of offenses relating to the criminal use of personal identification information; and
- The clerk of the court retains $1 of the surcharge.

The bill also creates s. 943.0412, F.S., to establish the Identity Theft and Fraud Grant Program within FDLE. The purpose of the Grant Program is to develop strategies and techniques that will assist in the investigation and prosecution of the criminal use of personal identification. The bill provides that funds collected from the surcharge and any funds specifically appropriated for the grant program will be awarded annually by FDLE to local law enforcement agencies. The total amount of grants awarded may not exceed funding appropriated for the grant program. The bill authorizes FDLE to establish criteria and set specific time periods for the acceptance of applications and for the selection process for awards.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on state revenues.

2. Expenditures:

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met in March 2014, and determined that CS/CS/HB 409 and CS/CS/HB 1029 will have an insignificant impact on state prison beds.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

The bill requires $500 of the $1,001 surcharge to be deposited into FDLE's Operating Trust Fund for FDLE to provide grants to local law enforcement agencies to investigate agencies. To the extent that local law enforcement agencies receive grant money from FDLE, the bill will have a positive fiscal impact on local governments.

Additionally, the Clerks of the Court will receive $1 from the surcharge resulting in a positive fiscal impact to the Clerks of the Court.

2. Expenditures:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government expenditures.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

The bill provides a mechanism in specified instances for the court to return a vulnerable person's stolen property prior to trial. As a result, the victims of these crimes could be made whole at a much earlier stage in the litigation process than otherwise possible.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.
