SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Section 943.0435, F.S., lists numerous offenses that qualify a person as a sexual offender (e.g., sexual battery, lewd or lascivious offenses, video voyeurism, etc.). These offenses range from third degree felonies to capital felonies, and most are ranked between Levels 6 and Level 9 in the Offense Severity Ranking Chart.

The bill reclassifies the offenses listed in s. 943.0435, F.S., if the offense is committed by an authority figure of a school against a student of the school. The offenses are reclassified as follows:

- Third degree felonies are reclassified as second degree felonies;
- Second degree felonies are reclassified as first degree felonies; and
- First degree felonies are reclassified as life felonies.

The bill also requires a reclassified offense to be ranked one level higher in the Offense Severity Ranking Chart, and provides the following definitions:

- "Authority figure" means a person 18 years of age or older who is employed by, volunteering at, or under contract with a school;
- "School" has the same meaning as provided in s. 1003.01 and includes a private school as defined in s. 1002.01, a voluntary prekindergarten education program as described in s. 1002.53(3), early learning programs, a public school as described in s. 402.3025(1), the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind, the Florida Virtual School as established under s. 1002.37, and a K-8 Virtual School as established under s. 1002.415. It does not include facilities dedicated exclusively to the education of adults; and
- "Student" means a person under the age of 18 who is enrolled at a school.

On January 30, 2014, the Criminal Justice Impact Conference determined that the bill will have an insignificant negative prison bed impact on the Department of Corrections.

The bill is effective October 1, 2014.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Criminal Penalties and the Ranking Chart

Sections 775.082 and 775.083, F.S., establish the following penalties applicable to felony offenses:

- A capital felony must be punished by death if a sentencing proceeding results in findings by the court that the person must be punished by death, otherwise the person must be punished by life imprisonment and is ineligible for parole;
- A life felony committed on or after July 1, 1995, is punishable by a term of imprisonment for life or by imprisonment for a term of years not exceeding life imprisonment and a $15,000 fine;
- A first degree felony is punishable by up to 30 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine;
- A second degree felony is punishable by up to 15 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine; and
- A third degree felony is punishable by up to 5 years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine.

The Criminal Punishment Code applies to sentencing for felony offenses committed on or after October 1, 1998.¹ Criminal offenses are ranked in the Offense Severity Ranking Chart from Level 1 (least severe) to Level 10 (most severe), and are assigned points based on the severity of the offense.² If an offense is not listed in the ranking chart, it defaults to a ranking based on the degree of the felony.³

A defendant's sentence is calculated based on points assigned for factors including the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced, injury to the victim, additional offenses that the defendant committed at the time of the primary offense, the defendant's prior record, and other aggravating factors.⁴ A defendant's total sentence points are then entered into a mathematical computation that determines the defendant's lowest permissible sentence.⁵ The permissible sentence for an offense ranges from the calculated lowest permissible sentence to the statutory maximum for the primary offense (the statutory maximum sentences for felonies are described above).⁶
