FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

A reviser's bill proposes technical, non-substantive changes in the Florida Statutes as part of the ongoing revision and editing of the statutes as directed by the Legislature. On occasion, such as when agency names are changed, a substantive law making such change will direct legislative offices to prepare a reviser's bill for consideration in a subsequent session, updating all the statutory references affected by the name change. HB 7133 follows that pattern, changing statutory references from "Department of Children and Family Services" to "Department of Children and Families."

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Sections 1-382 conform references within the Florida Statutes to the redesignation of the "Department of Children and Family Services" as the "Department of Children and Families," pursuant to Section 2, Chapter 2012-84, Laws of Florida.

Section 383 provides for an effective date.
