SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill creates the "Florida Restaurant Lending a Helping Hand Act."

The bill amends existing provisions regarding liability for canned or perishable food distributed free of charge by expanding the definition of "perishable food" to include foods that have been prepared at a licensed public food service establishment. The bill provides protection from criminal and civil liability to public food service establishments that donate perishable foods apparently fit for human consumption to a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for free. This immunity from criminal penalty or civil damages does not apply if an injury is caused by the gross negligence, recklessness, or intentional misconduct of the donor or gleaner.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote personal responsibility - The bill provides protection from criminal and civil liability to public food service establishments that donate perishable foods apparently fit for human consumption to a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization for free.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Food Insecurity

The following national statistics were provided by American Second Harvest¹ regarding food insecurity (food security is a situation in which people do not live in hunger or fear of starvation):

- In 2006, 3.3% of all U.S. households (3.8 million households) accessed emergency food from a food pantry one or more times, or 21% of all food-insecure households.
- In 2006, food insecure (low food security or very low food security) households were 19 times more likely than food-secure households to have obtained food from a food pantry, an increase in likelihood from 17 times in 2005.
- In 2006, food insecure (low food security or very low food security) households were 15 times more likely than food-secure households to have eaten a meal at an emergency kitchen, an decrease in likelihood from 19 times in 2005.
- In 2006, 55.5% of food-insecure households participated in at least one of the three major Federal food assistance programs – Food Stamp Program, The National School Lunch Program, and the Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children, remaining unchanged from 55.6% in 2005.

Liability for Canned or Perishable Food Distributed Free of Charge

Florida's law regarding liability for canned or perishable food that is distributed free of charge provides protection from criminal and civil liability to a good faith donor or gleaner² of any canned or perishable food apparently fit for human consumption to a charitable or nonprofit organization for free distribution.³ This immunity does not apply if an injury is caused by the gross negligence, recklessness, or intentional misconduct of the donor or gleaner.⁴

The provisions of this section apply to the good faith donation of canned or perishable food regardless of whether such food is readily marketable due to appearance, freshness, grade, surplus, or other such considerations.⁵ These provisions are not to be construed to restrict the authority of any lawful agency to otherwise regulate or ban the use of food for human consumption and the immunity from liability does not relieve any donor of its duty to comply with any law regulating such donor with respect to

¹ America's Second Harvest states that they are the nation's largest charitable hunger-relief organization and they include a network of more than 200 member food banks and food-rescue organizations. See http://www.secondharvest.org/about_us/ (last visited on Jan. 15, 2008).

² Section 768.136(1)(b), F.S., defines "gleaner" as "a person who harvests for free distribution an agricultural crop that has been donated by the owner."

Section 768.136(2), F.S.

health or sanitation.⁶ This same criminal and civil liability protection is provided for bona fide charitable or nonprofit organizations, or any representatives or volunteers acting on behalf of such organizations or uncompensated persons acting in a philanthropic manner providing services similar to those of such an organization, which accept, collect, transport, or distribute any canned or perishable food, apparently fit for human consumption, from a good faith donor or gleaner for free distribution.⁷

The term "donor," which appears to include public food service establishments, is defined as:

[A] person, business, organization, or institution which owns, rents, leases, or operates:

- 1. Any building, vehicle, place, or structure, or any room or division in a building, vehicle, place, or structure, that is maintained and operated as a place where food is regularly prepared, served, or sold for immediate consumption on or in the vicinity of the premises; or to be called for or taken out by customers; or to be delivered to factories, construction camps, airlines, locations where catered events are being held, and other similar locations for consumption at any place;
- 2. Any public location with vending machines dispensing prepared meals; or
- 3. Any retail grocery store.8

The term "canned food" is defined as:

[A]ny food which has been commercially processed and prepared for human consumption and which has been commercially packaged in such a manner as to remain nonperishable without refrigeration for a reasonable length of time. 9

The term "perishable food" is defined as:

[A]ny food that may spoil or otherwise become unfit for human consumption because of its nature, type, or physical condition. "Perishable food" includes, but is not limited to, fresh or processed meats, poultry, seafood, dairy products, bakery products, eggs in the shell, fresh fruits or vegetables, and foods that have been noncommercially packaged or that have been frozen or otherwise require refrigeration to remain nonperishable for a reasonable length of time. ¹⁰

There have been no reported court cases under this section of law and no cases were found that involved the donation of food.

Regulation of Public Food Service Establishments

The Division of Hotels and Restaurant (Division) within the Department of Business and Professional Regulation (DBPR) is the state agency charged with enforcing the provisions of ch. 509, F.S., and all other applicable laws relating to the inspection and regulation of public lodging establishments and public food service establishments for the purpose of protecting the public health, safety, and welfare. According to the DBPR, there are over 43,000 licensed public food service establishments in Florida.

A public food service establishment is defined in ch. 509, F.S., as follows:

(a) "Public food service establishment" means any building, vehicle, place, or structure, or any room or division in a building, vehicle, place, or structure where food is prepared, served, or sold for immediate consumption on or in the vicinity of the premises; called for or taken out by customers; or prepared prior to being delivered to another location for consumption.

(b) The following are excluded from the definition in paragraph (a):

- 1. Any place maintained and operated by a public or private school, college, or university:
- a. For the use of students and faculty; or
- b. Temporarily to serve such events as fairs, carnivals, and athletic contests.
- 2. Any eating place maintained and operated by a church or a religious, nonprofit fraternal, or nonprofit civic organization:
- a. For the use of members and associates; or
- b. Temporarily to serve such events as fairs, carnivals, or athletic contests.
- 3. Any eating place located on an airplane, train, bus, or watercraft which is a common carrier.
- 4. Any eating place maintained by a hospital, nursing home, sanitarium, assisted living facility, adult day care center, or other similar place that is regulated under s. 381.0072.
- 5. Any place of business issued a permit or inspected by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services under s. 500.12.
- 6. Any place of business where the food available for consumption is limited to ice, beverages with or without garnishment, popcorn, or prepackaged items sold without additions or preparation.
- 7. Any theater, if the primary use is as a theater and if patron service is limited to food items customarily served to the admittees of theaters.
- 8. Any vending machine that dispenses any food or beverages other than potentially hazardous foods, as defined by division rule.
- 9. Any vending machine that dispenses potentially hazardous food and which is located in a facility regulated under s. 381.0072.
- 10. Any research and development test kitchen limited to the use of employees and which is not open to the general public.¹¹

Other States and Federal Law

Laws providing immunity from criminal and civil liability for the donation of food are referred to as "Good Samaritan" food donation laws. All fifty states prior to 1990 had adopted some form of these laws. 12

The first attempt to legislate in this area by Congress resulted in the passage of the Good Samaritan Food Donation Model Act that became part of Title IV of the National and Community Service Act, which President Bush signed into law on November 16, 1990.¹³ This Act did not mandate that the states follow its provisions, but it was an effort to give the states an opportunity to take a uniform approach to this issue.

When only one state adopted the Model Act in the five ensuing years, Congress adopted the Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act of 1996 which President Clinton signed into law on October 1, 1996.¹⁴ The key provisions of the 1996 Act provide:

- Protection for donors from liability when donating to a non-profit organization.
- Protection for donors from civil and criminal liability should the product donated in good faith later cause harm to the needy recipient.
- Standardization across the states of donor liability exposure.

¹³ 42 U.S.C §§ 12671-12673.

¹⁴ 42 U.S.C § 1791.

 A liability floor of "gross negligence" or intentional misconduct for persons who donate grocery products.¹⁵

It is unclear if Congress intended to replace the various state measures with a uniform national law, in which case the state laws would have no further effect. Alternatively, Congress may have intended to establish greater, but not complete, consistency in this area of the law by making a liability floor of gross negligence a minimum national standard. If so, state laws that set a higher liability floor than that of the federal law, such as those holding food donors liable only for recklessness or intentional misconduct, would retain their force even after Congress acted.

Effect of Proposed Changes:

The bill creates the "Florida Restaurant Lending a Helping Hand Act."

The bill amends s. 768.136, F.S., to expand the definition of "perishable food" to include foods that have been prepared at a public food service establishment licensed under ch. 509, F.S. While it appears that the current definition of "donor" includes public food service establishments, the bill clearly provides that the term "perishable food" includes foods that have been prepared at a public food service establishment licensed under ch. 509, F.S. This change ensures that the protection from criminal and civil liability to a good faith donor or gleaner of any canned or perishable food apparently fit for human consumption to a charitable or nonprofit organization for free distribution includes all foods that have been prepared at a public food service establishment licensed under ch. 509, F.S. Under the present law, it may include restaurant prepared meals only if the meals require refrigeration to remain nonperishable for a reasonable period of time.

Any donor operating under the provisions of this bill must comply with laws regulating health or sanitation.¹⁶

The bill has an effective date of July 1, 2008.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1: Provides that the Act may be cited as the "Florida Restaurant Lending a Helping Hand Act."

Section 2: Amends s. 768.136, F.S., relating to liability for canned or perishable food distributed free of charge.

Section 3: Provides that the bill becomes effective on July 1, 2008.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on state revenues.

2. Expenditures:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on state expenditures.

¹⁵ Ibid.

¹⁶ Section. 768.136(5), F.S. This would likely include food sanitation and safety laws under chapter 509, F.S., such as temperature, storage, cleanliness, and the like.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government revenues.

2. Expenditures:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government expenditures.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

The bill is designed to encourage the donation of more food to charitable organizations. This should not have a direct impact on the private sector, however, the bill does provide limited immunity should a food service establishment choose to make donations as provided under the bill.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable because this joint resolution does not appear to require counties or cities to: spend funds or take action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority of counties or cities to raises revenues in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or cities.

2. Other:

Access to Courts

Article I, section 21 of the Florida Constitution provides: "The courts shall be open to every person for redress of any injury, and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay." The Florida Constitution protects "only rights that existed at common law or by statute prior to the enactment of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution." In order to make a colorable claim of denial of access to courts, an aggrieved party must demonstrate that the Legislature has abolished a common-law right previously enjoyed by the people of Florida and, if so, that it has not provided a reasonable alternative for redress and that there is not an "overpowering public necessity" for eliminating the right. This right could be implicated if a court were to find that the bill abolishes a right of access to the courts that existed at common law or by statute prior to the enactment of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution. 19

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

The bill does not appear to create a need for rulemaking or rulemaking authority.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The 1st and 4th District Courts of Appeal (DCA) issued conflicting opinions as to whether the criminal child abuse statute applies to speech. The 4th DCA ruled that the statute is unconstitutionally overbroad as applied to child abuse that is only speech. The 1st DCA, however, ruled that the statute is not overbroad because it can be narrowly construed to only apply to unprotected speech. This bill addresses the conflict by providing an exception to the criminal child abuse statute. The bill provides that an act does not violate the child abuse statute if it is protected by the First Amendment.

This bill also amends the definition of "crime" applicable to provisions on victim assistance to include felonies or misdemeanors committed by an adult or a juvenile which result in psychiatric or psychological injury to a person less than 18 years of age who was not physically injured by the criminal act.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government expenditures. It appears to have an unknown minimal negative fiscal impact on the Crime Compensation Trust Fund.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote Personal Responsibility -- This bill redefines criminal child abuse.

Provide Limited Government -- This bill expands the number of persons and types of injuries for which compensation under the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund are paid.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Whether Speech Can Amount to Child Abuse

Florida's criminal child abuse statute, s. 827.03, F.S., provides that child abuse is an intentional physical or mental injury to a child, an intentional act that could be expected to result in a physical or mental injury to a child, or encouragement of any person to act that results or could be expected to result in physical or mental injury to a child. It further provides that it is a third-degree felony for a person to knowingly or willfully abuse a child without causing great bodily harm, disability, or disfigurement. Aggravated child abuse, which is a first degree felony, occurs when a person commits aggravated battery on a child, willfully tortures, punishes or cages a child, or knowingly and willfully abuses a child and causes great bodily harm, permanent disability or permanent disfigurement to the child.

In State v. DuFresne, the state alleged that a teacher who screamed at an autistic student caused the student "mental injury" and charged the teacher with criminal child abuse. The defendant asserted that the statute is overbroad because it applies to speech that is protected by the First Amendment. The 4th District Court of Appeal (DCA) held that in order for the criminal child abuse statute to withstand an overbreadth challenge, it could not apply to speech. The overbreadth doctrine relates to the First Amendment freedom of speech and "prohibits the Government from banning unprotected speech if a substantial amount of protected speech is prohibited or chilled in the process." A statute can be considered overbroad if it is written so broadly that it deters free expression.

The 4th DCA reiterated this decision in 2006 in Munao v. State. In Munao, the court held that the defendant, who repeatedly told his six year-old child to get a knife and stab his mother, could not be charged with child abuse because, under DuFresne, the child abuse statute does not apply to speech. ⁵

Shortly after the Munao decision was issued, the 1st DCA decided State v. Coleman. In Coleman, the state charged the defendant with child abuse and prosecuted him for causing mental injury when he drove by young girls and asked them vulgar and offensive questions. ⁶ In disagreeing with the 4th DCA opinion, the 1st DCA stated:

We do not agree with DuFresne and Munao, however, that, to withstand an overbreadth challenge to section 827.03(1), we must construe the statute to avoid its application to all speech. If section 827.03(1), can be construed to be applicable only to specifically described unprotected speech, it can withstand an overbreadth challenge...⁷ If in applying section 827.03(1) to speech, courts define the proscribed speech by construing the statute in pari materia with the definitions in chapter 39, constitutional speech will not be implicated.⁸

This bill addresses the conflict by providing an exception to the criminal child abuse statute. Specifically, the bill provides that an act does not violate the child abuse statute if it is protected by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution or Article 1, Section 4 of the Florida Constitution. In relation to the cases discussed above, this language may be interpreted to mean that the child abuse statute does apply to speech so long as it is not constitutionally protected speech.

Mental Injury

In recent years, the criminal child abuse statute has been challenged as unconstitutionally vague because it does not define the term "mental injury." In 2002, the Florida Supreme Court held that the statute was not unconstitutionally vague because "mental injury" was defined in ch. 39, F.S., a related child-protection statute. Section 39.01, F.S., defines "mental injury" as "an injury to the intellectual or psychological capacity of a child as evidenced by a discernible and substantial impairment in the ability to function within the normal range of performance and behavior. The Supreme Court opinion recommended that the criminal child abuse statute be amended to include a definition of mental injury.

This bill amends s. 827.03, F.S., to reference the definition of "mental injury" in s. 39.01(41), F.S.

Victim Assistance Program

Injured crime victims may be eligible for financial assistance through the Florida Attorney General's Division of Victim Services for medical care, lost income, funeral expenses and other out-of-pocket expenses directly related to the injury. Payment is made from the Crime Compensation Trust Fund to compensate victims who have suffered physical injuries and certain victims who suffer mental injuries. ¹³

Section 960.03(3), F.S., defines the term "crime", which definition controls who is eligible for payment from the Division of Victim Services. Subsection (a) of that definition provides that "crime" means "a felony or misdemeanor offense committed by either an adult or a juvenile which results in physical injury or death. The term also includes any such criminal act which is committed within this state but which falls exclusively within federal jurisdiction."

This bill redefines the term "crime" for the purposes of payment from the Crime Compensation Trust Fund to include an additional form of injury to a victim or intervenor. Specifically, the bill adds the term "mental injury," as already defined by s. 39.01, F.S., to the definition of "crime." As a result, a felony or misdemeanor offense committed by an adult or juvenile that results in physical injury, mental injury, or death of the victim or intervenor is considered a crime for purposes of victim assistance.

Florida's share of federal Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) dollars during 2005-2006 totaled $27,437.000. VOCA funds awarded to Florida consisted of $20,439,000 for victim assistance programs throughout the state and $6,998,000 for financial compensation to victims for losses incurred as a result of their victimization. Clarification of Criminal Child Abuse Statute

This bill changes the structure of s. 827.03, F.S., creating a definition section, followed by an "offenses" section that describes the conduct proscribed by the statute and the applicable penalties. The bill adds the definition of "mental injury" in s. 39.01, F.S. to s. 827.03, F.S. The bill also makes conforming changes to various sections of the Florida Statutes.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1 amends s. 827.03, F.S., relating to criminal penalties for child abuse and neglect.

Section 2 amends s. 775.084, F.S., relating to imprisonment for crime.

Section 3 amends s. 775.0877, F.S., relating to criminal transmission of HIV.

Section 4 amends s. 782.07, F.S., relating to manslaughter.

Section 8 amends s. 960.03, F.S., relating to definitions applicable to portions of chapter 960, F.S.

Section 9 provides an effective date of July 1, 2008.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

The portion of this bill amending the definition of crime applicable to the crime compensation fund appears to have an unknown minimal negative fiscal impact on the Crime Compensation Trust Fund because the bill expands the definition of crime to include all offenses that result only in psychiatric or psychological injury. See Fiscal Comments.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

None.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The bill adds the term "mental injury" to the definition of "crime" and defines "mental injury" in accordance with s. 39.01, F.S. Children are currently eligible to receive compensation awards if they are under 16, present at the scene of a crime, saw or heard the crime, and suffered a psychiatric or psychological injury because of the crime as long as they were not physically injured. Children under 16 are also eligible to receive compensation if they suffer a psychiatric or psychological injury as a direct result of a forcible felony being committed upon them.

To the extent that this bill increases the number children eligible to receive a compensation award for mental injury, there could be a fiscal impact. However, many of the children eligible under the "mental injury" criterion contained in this bill may be eligible under existing law.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

The guilt of a person charged with a crime must be established beyond a reasonable doubt for every element of the offense charged.¹⁵ If there are multiple elements of an offense, then a prosecutor will have to establish that each element is present beyond a reasonable doubt. It is possible that this bill could be interpreted to require a prosecutor in a child abuse case prove that an act does not violate the First Amendment beyond a reasonable doubt. This bill could possibly make it more difficult for the state to prosecute child abuse offenses.

This bill provides that an act does not violate the section if it is protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or s. 4, Art I of the State Constitution. It appears that the bill anticipates an effect on the freedom of speech. However, the bill could possibly be interpreted as giving more protections to the other freedoms addressed in the First Amendment, namely religion, press, assembly, and petition.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On February 20, 2008, the Committee on Courts adopted one amendment to this bill. The amendment made the following revisions to the bill:

DATE:

h0103b.SSC.doc

State v. Sebastian, 171 So. 2d 893 (Fla. 1965).

- Added to the definition of child abuse in chapter 39 that there must be multiple instances of injury by the same abuser.
- Added the requirement that mental abuse must be supported by the expert testimony of a licensed health care provider licensed under ch. 458 or ch.459, F.S.¹⁶
- Provided an affirmative defense to prosecution, instead of an exception to prosecution, that the speech which is the sole basis of prosecution is protected by the first amendment.
- Provided an affirmative defense to prosecution for mental injury where the defendant is a victim of domestic violence as long as the defense was not used previously with respect to the same abuser.

The bill was then reported favorably with an amendment.

HB 103

1 A bill to be entitled 2 An act relating to criminal conduct; amending s. 827.03, 3 F.S.; defining the term "mental injury"; exempting constitutionally protected acts from prohibitions on child 4 5 abuse, aggravated child abuse, and neglect; amending ss. 6 775.084, 775.0877, 782.07, 921.0022, 943.325, and 948.062, 7 F.S.; conforming cross-references; amending s. 960.03, 8 F.S.; redefining the term "crime" for purposes of crime 9 victims compensation to include additional forms of 10 injury; providing an effective date. 11 12 Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida: 13 14 Section 1. Section 827.03, Florida Statutes, is amended to 15 read: 827.03 Abuse, aggravated abuse, and neglect of a child; 16 17 penalties. --DEFINITIONS.--For purposes of this section: 18 (1)19 "Aggravated child abuse" occurs when a person: 1. Commits aggravated battery on a child; 20 Willfully tortures, maliciously punishes, or willfully 21 22 and unlawfully cages a child; or 23 Knowingly or willfully abuses a child and in so doing causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent 24 25 disfigurement to the child. 26 (b) "Child abuse" means: 27 1. (a) Intentional infliction of physical or mental injury 28 upon a child;

2.(b) An intentional act that could reasonably be expected to result in physical or mental injury to a child; or

- 3.(e) Active encouragement of any person to commit an act that results or could reasonably be expected to result in physical or mental injury to a child.
- A person who knowingly or willfully abuses a child without causing great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
 - (2) "Aggravated child abuse" occurs when a person:
 - (a) Commits aggravated battery on a child;
- (b) Willfully tortures, maliciously punishes, or willfully and unlawfully cages a child; or
- (c) Knowingly or willfully abuses a child and in so doing causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child.

A person who commits aggravated child abuse commits a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(c) "Maliciously" means wrongfully, intentionally, and without legal justification or excuse. Maliciousness may be established by circumstances from which one could conclude that a reasonable parent would not have engaged in the damaging acts toward the child for any valid reason and that the primary purpose of the acts was to cause the victim unjustifiable pain or injury.

(d) "Mental injury" shall have the same meaning as provided in s. 39.01.

(e) (3) (a) "Neglect of a child" means:

- 1. A caregiver's failure or omission to provide a child with the care, supervision, and services necessary to maintain the child's physical and mental health, including, but not limited to, food, nutrition, clothing, shelter, supervision, medicine, and medical services that a prudent person would consider essential for the well-being of the child; or
- 2. A caregiver's failure to make a reasonable effort to protect a child from abuse, neglect, or exploitation by another person.

Neglect of a child may be based on repeated conduct or on a single incident or omission that results in, or could reasonably be expected to result in, serious physical or mental injury, or a substantial risk of death, to a child.

(2) OFFENSES.--

- (a) A person who commits aggravated child abuse commits a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (b) A person who willfully or by culpable negligence neglects a child and in so doing causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (c) A person who knowingly or willfully abuses a child without causing great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

- (d)(c) A person who willfully or by culpable negligence neglects a child without causing great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (3) EXCEPTION.--An act does not violate this section if it is protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution or s. 4, Art. I of the State Constitution.

- (4) For purposes of this section, "maliciously" means wrongfully, intentionally, and without legal justification or excuse. Maliciousness may be established by circumstances from which one could conclude that a reasonable parent would not have engaged in the damaging acts toward the child for any valid reason and that the primary purpose of the acts was to cause the victim unjustifiable pain or injury.
- Section 2. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section 775.084, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
- 775.084 Violent career criminals; habitual felony offenders and habitual violent felony offenders; three-time violent felony offenders; definitions; procedure; enhanced penalties or mandatory minimum prison terms.--
 - (1) As used in this act:

(d) "Violent career criminal" means a defendant for whom the court must impose imprisonment pursuant to paragraph (4)(d),

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Under Florida's Motor Vehicle No-Fault Law, motor vehicle owners are required to maintain $10,000 worth of first-party insurance known as Personal Injury Protection, commonly referred to as PIP. PIP coverage provides up to $10,000 per person for loss sustained as a result of bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death that arises from owning, maintaining, or using an insured motor vehicle.

Over time, PIP has been subject to a variety of fraudulent activities. The penalties for insurance fraud are set forth in s. 817.234, F.S., which provides that if the value of the property involved in a violation:

- Is less than $20,000, the offender commits a 3rd degree felony;
- Is $20,000 or more, but less than $100,000, the offender commits a 2nd degree felony:
- Is $100,000 or more, the offender commits a 1st degree felony.

HB 267 provides minimum mandatory penalties for persons who commit insurance fraud that involves a PIP claim. First violations are punishable by a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 2 years and a mandatory minimum fine of $200,000. Second and subsequent violations are punishable by a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 10 years and a mandatory minimum fine of $500,000.

The bill also specifies that health care practitioners who are convicted of insurance fraud that involves a PIP claim must be punished by a minimum mandatory suspension of their professional license for 12 months.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met on February 26, 2008, and determined this bill would have an insignificant prison bed impact.

Additionally, this bill establishes mandatory fines and while indeterminate, any proceeds collected from these funds would increase clerks of court revenues.

This bill takes effect October 1, 2008.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote Personal Responsibility – This bill provides minimum mandatory penalties for persons who commit insurance fraud that involves a PIP claim.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Florida's Motor Vehicle No-Fault Law

Under Florida's Motor Vehicle No-Fault Law, motor vehicle owners are required to maintain $10,000 worth of first-party insurance known as Personal Injury Protection, commonly referred to as PIP. PIP coverage provides up to $10,000 per person for loss sustained as a result of bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death that arises from owning, maintaining, or using an insured motor vehicle. PIP benefits are available for certain express damages sustained in a motor vehicle accident regardless of fault.¹

Over time, PIP has been subject to a variety of fraudulent activities. Examples of PIP fraud include: solicitation of individuals to participate in fraud; staging motor vehicle accidents; billing for treatment that never occurred; and overbilling of legitimate claims. From 2002 to 2005, PIP fraud referrals to the Division of Insurance Fraud (DIF) increased 300%, from 615 referrals to 2,628 referrals. During fiscal year 2005-2006, there were 225 convictions for PIP fraud - this made up 36% of the 620 total insurance fraud convictions for that year.²

Insurance Fraud

A person commits insurance fraud if they, with the intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer:

- Presents or causes to be presented any written or oral statement as part of, or in support of, a claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy or a health maintenance organization subscriber or provider contract, knowing that such statement contains any false, incomplete, or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim;
- Prepares or makes any written or oral statement that is intended to be presented to any insurer in connection with, or in support of, any claim for payment or other benefit pursuant to an insurance policy or a health maintenance organization subscriber or provider contract, knowing that such statement contains any false, incomplete, or misleading information concerning any fact or thing material to such claim; or
- Knowingly:
 - O Presents, causes to be presented, or prepares or makes with knowledge or belief that it will be presented to any insurer, purported insurer, servicing corporation, insurance broker, or insurance agent, or any employee or agent thereof, any false, incomplete, or misleading information or written or oral statement as part of, or in support of, an application for the issuance of, or the rating of, any insurance policy, or a health maintenance organization subscriber or provider contract; or
 - Conceals information concerning any fact material to such application.³

³ s. 817.234, F.S.

Section 817.234, F.S., also specifies ways in which physicians, practitioners, attorneys, and certain governmental units may commit insurance fraud. Specifically, s. 817.234, F.S., provides:

- Any physician licensed under chapter 458, osteopathic physician licensed under chapter 459, chiropractic physician licensed under chapter 460, or other practitioner licensed under the laws of this state who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any insured party to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part XI of chapter 627, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging by said physician, osteopathic physician, chiropractic physician, or practitioner, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, commits insurance fraud.
- Any attorney who knowingly and willfully assists, conspires with, or urges any claimant to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part XI of chapter 627, or any person who, due to such assistance, conspiracy, or urging on such attorney's part, knowingly and willfully benefits from the proceeds derived from the use of such fraud, commits insurance fraud.
- Any person or governmental unit licensed under chapter 395 to maintain or operate a hospital, and any administrator or employee of any such hospital, who knowingly and willfully allows the use of the facilities of said hospital by an insured party in a scheme or conspiracy to fraudulently violate any of the provisions of this section or part XI of chapter 627 commits insurance fraud

Penalties

The penalties for insurance fraud are set forth in s. 817.234, F.S., which provides that if the value of the property involved in a violation:

- Is less than $20,000, the offender commits a 3rd degree felony⁴:
- Is $20,000 or more, but less than $100,000, the offender commits a 2nd degree felony⁵;
- Is $100,000 or more, the offender commits a 1st degree felony⁶.

Section 817.234, F.S., also states that if a physician, osteopathic physician, chiropractic physician, or practitioner is adjudicated guilty of insurance fraud, the appropriate licensing authority must hold an administrative hearing to consider the imposition of administrative sanctions.

Minimum Penalties

The insurance fraud statute currently contains provisions that require minimum penalties. Specifically, s. 817.234(8)(a), F.S., makes it unlawful for a person intending to defraud another person to solicit or cause to be solicited any business from a person involved in a motor vehicle accident for the purpose of making, adjusting, or settling motor vehicle tort claims or claims for PIP benefits. The penalty for violating this provision is a minimum term of imprisonment of two years.

In addition, s. 817.234(9), F.S., provides that a person may not organize, plan, or knowingly participate in an intentional motor vehicle crash or a scheme to create documentation of a motor vehicle crash that did not occur for the purpose of making motor vehicle tort claims or claims for PIP benefits. The penalty for violating this provision is a minimum terms of imprisonment of two years.

Effect of the Bill

HB 267 provides minimum mandatory penalties for persons who, on or after October 1, 2008, commit insurance fraud that involves a PIP claim. First violations are punishable by a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 2 years and a mandatory minimum fine of $200,000. Second and subsequent ⁴ A third degree felony is punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084, F.S.

⁵ A second-degree felony is punishable by up to 15 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084, F.S.

⁶ A first degree felony is punishable by up to 30 years imprisonment and a $10,000 fine. ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084, F.S. h0267b.SSC.doc violations are punishable by a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment of 10 years and a mandatory minimum fine of $500,000.

The bill also specifies that health care practitioners⁷ who are convicted of insurance fraud that involves a PIP claim must be punished by a minimum mandatory suspension of their professional license for 12 months. "Conviction" means "that there has been a determination of guilt as a result of a trial or the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, regardless of whether adjudication was withheld."

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Amends s. 817.234, F.S., relating to false and fraudulent insurance claims.

Section 2. This bill takes effect October 1, 2008.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

Indeterminate. See "Fiscal Comments."

2. Expenditures:

See "Fiscal Comments."

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

Indeterminate. See "Fiscal Comments."

2. Expenditures:

See "Fiscal Comments."

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

Health care practitioners may be affected in that they are subject to having their professional licenses suspended under the provisions of the bill.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference has not yet met to determine the prison bed impact of this bill. However, to the extent that this bill creates a new crime with minimum mandatory penalties, there may be an additional prison bed impact. Additionally, this bill establishes mandatory fines and while indeterminate, any proceeds collected from these funds would increase clerks of court revenues.

⁷ The term "health care practitioners" is defined by s. 456.001, F.S., as any person licensed under chapter 457; chapter 458; chapter 459; chapter 460; chapter 461; chapter 463; chapter 464; chapter 465; chapter 466; chapter 467; part II, part III, part V, part X, part XIII, or part XIV of chapter 468; chapter 478; chapter 480; part III or part IV of chapter 483; chapter 484; chapter 486; chapter 490; or chapter 491.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

2. Other:

None.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

The provisions that specify the minimum mandatory penalties may be better located in subsection (11) of s. 817.234, F.S., in that subsection (11) provides penalties for insurance fraud.

The provision relating to professional licenses may be located in subsection (2) of s. 817.234, F.S., in that subsection (2) currently contains provisions relating to the suspension of one's professional license due to insurance fraud.

D. STATEMENT OF THE SPONSOR

The sponsor submitted the following statement: Passage of HB 267 will discourage fraudulent abuse of insurance companies. This legislation will establish significant penalties on those found guilty of PIP Insurance fraud. Curbing the number of fraudulent claims and decreasing the amounts of those claims will help Floridians control insurance premium rates.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On February 6, 2008, the Homeland Security & Public Safety Committee adopted a strike-all amendment and reported the bill favorably as amended. The amendment address the issues raised in the bill analysis by reorganizing the bill's provisions into existing subsections of the insurance fraud statute. The amendment also adds technical language recommended by the Department of Health.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The Trust Code is the portion of the Florida Statutes that pertains to the administration of trusts.

The bill provides that when a grantor appoints trustees for particular purposes, the trustees excluded from those purposes are not liable for any consequence that results from compliance with the exercise of those purposes, regardless of the information available to the excluded trustees. The trustees having the power for a particular purpose shall be liable to the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of that purpose.

The bill permits a trustee to use trust assets, without prior court approval, to pay costs or attorney's fees in any trust proceeding, including to defend against an allegation of breach of trust. However, when a claim or defense is made against the trustee based upon a breach of trust, if the party making the allegation shows a reasonable basis for the court to conclude that a breach of trust has in fact occurred, the court may enter an order prohibiting the trustee from using trust assets to pay costs or attorney's fees, and may order a refund.

The bill revises time limitations for the bringing of legal claims by a beneficiary against a trustee for breach of trust. The bill provides that all claims by a beneficiary against a trustee are barred upon the later of:

- Ten years from the date that the trust terminates, the trustee resigns or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends; or
- Twenty years after the date of the act or omission of the trustee that is complained of.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government.

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2008.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Empower families -- This bill may affect families who use trust instruments in dealing with personal property.

Safeguard individual liberty -- This bill affects the options of an individual, organization or association regarding the conduct of his/her own affairs using trust instruments.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Background

The Trust Code is the portion of the Florida Statutes that pertains to the administration of trusts. Florida's body of statutory law specific to trusts is found in ch. 736, F.S., and encompasses: trust registration; the jurisdiction of the courts; the duties and liabilities of trustees; the powers of the trustee; charitable trusts; and rules of construction for trusts. This chapter sets forth the default rules for trust administration which can be limited or altered by the grantor (creator of the trust) in the trust instrument. Trust provisions in statute are also supplemented by case law in areas such as requirements for trust creation, treatment of revocable trusts, and rights of creditors.

Florida's Trust Code is modeled on the Uniform Trust Code of 2000. The National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws adopted the Uniform Trust Code (UTC) in 2000 and it has been enacted in some form in 18 states and the District of Colombia. In Florida, the Ad Hoc Trust Code Revision Committee (the committee) of the Florida Bar reviewed and revised the UTC to account for distinctions found in Florida statutory and case law. The product of the committee's work was the basis or the new Florida Trust Code adopted in 2006.

A trust is generally defined as:

a fiduciary relationship with respect to property, subjecting the person by whom the title to the property is held to equitable duties to deal with the property for the benefit of another person, which arises as a result of a manifestation of an intention to create it. . . . [A] "beneficiary of a trust" [is] one who has an equitable interest in property subject to a trust and who enjoys the benefit of the administration of the trust by a trustee. The trustee is the person who holds the legal title to the property held in trust, for the benefit of the beneficiary. The settlor, or trustor, is the person who creates the trust.²

A "grantor" is "one who creates or adds to a trust and includes 'settlor' or 'trustor' and a testator who creates or adds to a trust." The term "trustee" as used in a technical or legal sense means the person who takes and holds the legal title to trust property for the benefit of another. "Trustee" includes "an original, additional, surviving, or successor trustee, whether or not appointed or confirmed by court."

⁵ Section 731.201(38), F.S.

Cotrustees

A trust may comprise a variety of liquid and non-liquid assets. A trustee may be a natural person or may be a financial institution. A trustee may be selected for their expertise in fiduciary administration, family governance or management of a diversified portfolio of securities. The expertise of the trustee may be limited, however, when it comes to managing unique assets such as a family business, real estate or large blocks of stock that cannot be easily diversified. Management of these types of assets may require a different skill set.

Clients sometimes wish to appoint a particular trustee for a trust but also want to have a cotrustee, adviser, or committee (not the trustee) control certain trust decisions. For example, if a grantor funds a trust with stock in the family company, he or she might want to continue to make decisions regarding the purchase, sale, and voting of such stock. Similarly, a family that has a long-standing relationship with a successful money manager might want that manager (not the trustee) to make investment decisions for trust assets. In addition, a client might want someone other than the trustee to decide when to make income or principal distributions to beneficiaries. In these situations, the client wants to minimize the trustee's involvement in such decisions.

Even if a trust directs the trustee to make investments or distributions on the direction of someone else and relieves it from liability for following such directions, the trustee might have considerable monitoring or other responsibilities and may be subject to potential liability. Under present Florida law, the trustee still has the responsibility to oversee, monitor and intervene to avoid a serious breach of trust by the advisor. Florida law provides that when a grantor of a trust confers "on a person other than the settlor of a revocable trust the power to direct certain actions of the trustee, the trustee shall act in accordance with an exercise of the power unless the attempted exercise is manifestly contrary to the terms of the trust or the trustee knows the attempted exercise would constitute a serious breach of a fiduciary duty that the person holding the power owes to the beneficiaries of the trust (emphasis added)."6

The bill amends s. 736.0703, F.S., to provide that when the grantor appoints trustees for particular purposes:

- an excluded trustee⁷ must act in accordance with the exercise of the power given to the included trustee;
- an excluded trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any consequence that results from compliance with the exercise of the power given to the included trustee, regardless of the information available to the excluded trustee:
- an excluded trustee is relieved from any obligation to review, inquire, investigate or make recommendations or evaluations with respect to the exercise of the power by the included trustee, regardless of any information available to the excluded trustee and regardless of any actual knowledge by the excluded trustee; and
- a trustee having the power to direct or prevent actions of the trustees shall be liable to the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power as if the excluded trustees were not in office, and shall have the exclusive obligation to account to and to defend any action brought by the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power.

⁶ Section 736.0808(2), F.S.

The "excluded trustee" is the trustee not assigned the specific power or purpose at issue.

Duty of Loyalty

A trustee has a duty to administer the trust solely in the interests of the beneficiaries.8 In the absence of a contrary provision in the trust instrument, a court order, or a specific statutory exception, a sale, encumbrance, or other transaction involving the investment or management of trust property entered into by the trustee for the trustee's own personal account, or which is otherwise affected by a conflict between the trustee's personal and fiduciary interests, is voidable by an affected beneficiary. 10 A trustee may not usurp an opportunity properly belonging to the trust. 11 In voting shares of stock or in exercising powers of control over interests in other enterprises, the trustee must act in the best interest of the beneficiaries. 12

To be contrasted with the transactions described above are those entered into between the trustee and persons who have close business¹³ or personal ties¹⁴ to the trustee. Such transactions are only presumed to be affected by a conflict between the personal and fiduciary interests of the trustee. 15 Accordingly, the transactions are not voidable per se; they are voidable only if the presumption is not rebutted.

The Trust Code includes several exceptions to the basic duty of loyalty in the interest of fair, effective, and efficient trust administration. Notwithstanding the potential presence of a conflict between the personal and fiduciary interests of a trustee, the trustee's duty of loyalty does not preclude any of the following:

- Payment of reasonable compensation to the trustee or an agreement between a trustee and beneficiary relating to the appointment or compensation of the trustee: 16
- Transactions between the trust and another trust, a decedent's estate, or a guardian of the property of which the trustee is a fiduciary or in which a beneficiary has an interest; 17
- A deposit of trust money in a regulated financial-service institution operated by the trustee; 18
- An advance by the trustee of money for the protection of the trust: 19 or
- The employment of persons, including attorneys, accountants, investment advisers, or agents, even if they are the trustee or are associated with the trustee, to advise or assist the trustee in the performance of its administrative duties or the employment of agents to perform any act of administration, whether or not discretionary.20

⁸ See generally, s. 736.0802(1), F.S.

¹⁹ Section 736.0802(7)(e), F.S.

²⁰ Section 736.0802(8), F.S.

The Trust Code empowers a trustee to pay costs or attorney fees incurred in any trust proceeding from trust assets without the approval of any person or a court, except prior court approval is required if an action has been filed, or defense asserted, against the trustee based upon a breach of trust.²¹ Prior court approval is not required "if the action or defense is later withdrawn or dismissed by the party that is alleging a breach of trust or resolved without a determination by the court that the trustee has committed a breach of trust."²² The courts have held that when the personal interests of a trustee conflict with his or her position as trustee in the defense of an action, the trustee must obtain court approval before using trust funds to pay attorney's fees from trust assets.²³

The bill amends s. 736.0802(10), F.S., to remove the requirement on a trustee to seek prior court approval to pay costs or attorney's fees to defend against an allegation of breach of trust. The bill will permit the trustee to use trust assets, without prior court approval, to pay costs or attorney's fees in any trust proceeding, including to defend against an allegation of breach of trust. However, when a claim or defense is made against the trustee based upon a breach of trust, if the party making the allegation shows a reasonable basis for the court to conclude that a breach of trust has in fact occurred, the bill provides that the court may enter an order prohibiting the trustee from using trust assets to pay costs or attorney's fees. The party making the allegation of breach of trust may do so by evidence in the record or by proffering evidence to the court that a breach of trust has occurred. The trustee may proffer evidence that rebuts the allegation. The new language provides that it does not restrict the remedies a court may employ to remedy a breach of trust, including ordering appropriate refunds.

Limitations on Proceedings Against Trustees

The Trust Code specifies time limitations on bringing claims by a beneficiary against a trustee for breach of trust.²⁴ With respect to matters adequately disclosed on a trust accounting, the applicable limitation period depends on whether the trustee has sent the beneficiary a limitation notice that relates to that accounting. The shortest limitation period provided is six months. This period applies to actions on matters the trustee has adequately disclosed in a trust accounting or other trust disclosure document when the trustee has provided the beneficiary with a related limitation notice.²⁵ A limitation notice is a written statement informing the beneficiary that an action against the trustee for actions based on any matter adequately disclosed in the accounting may be barred unless the action is commenced within six months of receipt of the accounting or limitation notice, whichever is later.²⁶

A significantly longer limitation period applies to claims involving matters adequately disclosed on a trust accounting when no related limitation notice is sent to the beneficiary. The Trust Code provides that the claims are barred as provided in chapter 95, F.S.²⁷ Typically, this will result in a four-year limitation with the period beginning on the date of receipt of the adequate disclosure.²⁸ An exception applies to matters involving actual or constructive fraud by the trustee. In those cases, the action must be commenced within 12 years, however the limitation period does not begin until the later of the time the facts giving rise to the action are discovered or the time the facts should have been discovered by an exercise of due diligence.²⁹

The bill provides that when "a trustee has not issued a final trust accounting or has not given written notice to the beneficiary of the availability of the trust records for examination and that claims with

[The change to current law is underlined in the preceding sentence.]

The bill further provides that notwithstanding the present limitations in law as discussed above, all claims by a beneficiary against a trustee are barred upon the later of:

- Ten years from the date that the trust terminates, the trustee resigns or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends; or
- Twenty years after the date of the act or omission of the trustee that is complained of.

Finally, the bill provides that the failure of the trustee to take corrective action shall not be construed as a separate act or omission and shall not be construed to extend the period of limitation.

Effective Date

The bill takes effect July 1, 2008.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 5, 2008, the Committee on Constitution & Civil Law recommended a strike-all amendment that picks up the Senate version of the bill. The amendment provides:

Section 1: The amendment creates a new section of law to provide that communications between a fiduciary, who administers fiduciary property, and a lawyer are privileged (identical to the existing attorney/client privilege). The new privilege applies to a fiduciary when serving as:

- a personal representative (Probate) or a trustee (Trust Code) as defined in s. 731.201,
- an administrator ad litem (Probate) as described in s. 733.308,
- a curator (Probate) as described in s. 733.501,
- a guardian or guardian ad litem (Guardianship) as defined in s. 744.102,
- a conservator (Transfer of Property to Minors) as defined in s. 710.102, or
- an attorney in fact (Powers of Attorney) as described in chapter 709.

STORAGE NAME: DATE: h0435b.SSC.doc 3/10/2008 Section 2 and Section 3: - These two sections of the amendment are identical in substance to section 1 and section 2 of the bill as filed – with some slight change in wording made by Senate Bill Drafting.

Section 4: Revises time limitations for the bringing of legal claims by a beneficiary against a trustee for breach of trust.

The first change made by the amendment, made in subsection (3), provides that when a trustee has not issued a final trust accounting or has not given written notice to the beneficiary of the availability of the trust records for examination and that claims with respect to matters not adequately disclosed may be barred, a claim against the trustee for breach of trust based on a matter not adequately disclosed in a trust disclosure document is barred as provided in ch. 95, F.S., and accrues when the beneficiary has actual knowledge of:

- 1. The facts upon which the claim is based, provided that such actual knowledge is established by clear and convincing evidence; or
- 2. The trustee's repudiation of the trust or adverse possession of trust assets.

The next changes made by the amendment, made in subsection (6), provide that notwithstanding the limitations provided elsewhere in the section, all claims by a beneficiary against a trustee for breach of trust are barred:

- 1. Upon the later of:
 - a. Ten years after the date the trust terminates, the trustee resigns, or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends, provided that the beneficiary had actual knowledge of the existence of the trust during the ten-year period; or
 - Twenty years after the date of the act or omission of the trustee that is complained of, provided that the beneficiary had actual knowledge of the existence of the trust during the twenty-year period; or
- 2. Forty years after the date the trust terminates, the trustee resigns, or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends.

For the purposed of the changes made by the amendment to subsection (6), failure of the trustee to take corrective action is not a separate act or omission and does not extend the period of repose established in the subsection.

The provisions of this section of the amendment, made to both subsection (3) and subsection (6), will apply only to claims based upon acts or omissions occurring on or after July 1, 2008.

The amendment does not have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill allows the court to consider the existence of a supportive relationship between an obligee and a person who is not related by consanguinity or affinity and with whom the obligee resides when determining the initial award of alimony.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local governments.

The bill provides an effective date of July 1, 2008.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote Personal Responsibility: The bill may limit the ability of an ex-spouse to collect alimony when the ex-spouse is found to be living in a supportive relationship with a person the ex-spouse is not related to by consanguinity or affinity.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Alimony Law

Alimony is generally used to provide support to a financially dependent spouse. The primary basis for alimony is whether there is need and ability to pay; alimony is not appropriate when the requesting spouse has no need for support or when the other spouse does not have the ability to pay.² Before a court can make an award of alimony, equitable distribution of the former spouse's assets must occur.3 The court then has several options with regard to awarding alimony, including permanent periodic alimony, lump-sum alimony, "bridge-the-gap" alimony, rehabilitative alimony, a combination of several different types of alimony, or no alimony at all.4

Permanent periodic alimony is usually awarded to meet the needs of a dependent spouse, although this form of alimony can also be used to balance any inequities that might result from the property division of the final judgment.⁵ Lump sum alimony can also be used to remedy any inequity that remains as a result of the final division of property. 6 Lump sum alimony can also be accomplished through periodic payments.7

In a long-term marriage, there is a presumption in favor of permanent alimony, regardless of the spouse's age or ability to earn income, although the district courts of Florida do not agree as to what constitutes a long-term marriage.8 Generally, however, a marriage of seventeen years or longer is considered long-term.9

Lump sum alimony may also take the form of "bridge-the-gap" alimony, which is alimony intended only for short-term assistance with legitimate, identifiable short-term needs. ¹⁰ This form of alimony typically lasts no longer than two years. 11 To receive an award of rehabilitative alimony, the party seeking support must provide the court with a rehabilitative plan including the purpose of the rehabilitation, the areas in which rehabilitation is needed, and the actual amount of money necessary for rehabilitation. 12

Section 61.08(1), F.S., provides that:

¹² ld.

In a proceeding for dissolution of marriage, the court may grant alimony to either party, which alimony may be rehabilitative or permanent in nature. In any award of alimony, the court may order periodic payments or payments in lump sum or both. The court may consider the adultery of either spouse and the circumstances thereof in determining the amount of alimony, if any, to be awarded.

In awarding alimony, the trial court is given broad discretion to consider any factor "necessary to do equity and justice between the parties." The trial court is to consider "all relevant economic factors" when determining a proper award of maintenance or alimony. These factors include:

- The standard of living established during the marriage.
- The duration of the marriage.
- The age, physical, and emotional condition of each party.
- The financial resources of each party, both marital and nonmarital, and the liabilities of each of them.
- If applicable, the time necessary for either party to acquire the education or training necessary for the party to find employment.
- Each party's contribution to the marriage, including, but not limited to, homemaking services, child care, education, and career building of the other party.
- All sources of income available to either party.

In addition to the factors listed in s. 61.08(2), F.S., the court may consider any other factor necessary to do equity and justice between the parties.¹⁵

Reducing or Terminating Alimony

Current law in s. 61.14(1)(b), F.S., provides that the "court may reduce or terminate an award of alimony upon specific written findings by the court that since the granting of a divorce and the award of alimony a supportive relationship has existed between the obligee and a person with whom the obligee resides" and who is not related by consanguinity or affinity. The burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that a supportive relationship exists is placed upon the obligor.

In determining whether the alleged de facto marriage should result in the reduction or termination of an existing award of alimony, the court is directed to "elicit the nature and extent of the relationship in question." ¹⁶

Section 61.14(1)(b)2., F.S., requires the court to consider the following non-exclusive list of circumstances, in determining the relationship of an obligee to another person in determining whether to modify an existing award of alimony:

- Whether the obligee and the other person hold themselves out as a married couple, engaging in conduct such as using the same last name and a common mailing address, referring to each other as "my husband" or "my wife," or "otherwise conducting themselves in a manner that evidences a permanent supportive relationship".
- The length of time that the obligee has resided in a permanent place of abode with another person who is not related by blood or affinity.
- The extent to which the obligee and other person have combined their assets or income or have otherwise demonstrated financial interdependence.

- The extent to which either the obligee or the other person supports the other, either in whole or in part.
- "The extent to which the obligee or the other person has performed valuable services for the other's company or employer".
- "Whether the obligee and other person have worked together to create or enhance anything of value".
- Whether the obligee and other person have made a joint purchase of real or personal property.
- Whether there is evidence to show that the obligee and the other person have an express or implied agreement regarding property sharing and support.
- Whether the obligee and the other person have supported the children of one another, regardless of any legal obligation to do so.

The statute provides that the statutory authorization of a reduction or termination of alimony due to the existence of a supportive relationship does not abrogate the requirements that every marriage in the state be solemnized under a license, does not recognize a common law marriage as valid, and does not recognize a de facto marriage.¹⁷

"De facto marriage" is defined as "[a] marriage in which the parties live together as husband and wife under color of validity but which is defective for reasons of form, etc." Common-law marriage is "[a] marriage that takes legal effect, without license or ceremony, when a couple live together as husband and wife, intend to be married, and hold themselves out to others as a married couple."

The Bill

The bill requires the court to consider and make a finding of fact concerning the existence of a supportive relationship as defined in s. 61.14(1)(b)2.,F.S., between an obligee and a person who is not related by consanguinity or affinity and with whom the obligee resides when determining a initial award of alimony or maintenance.

Essentially the bill is applying the current standard used in modifying alimony and applying it to the initial awarding of alimony.

BILL #:

HB 513

Offenses Against Unborn Children

SPONSOR(S): Poppell

TIED BILLS:

IDEN./SIM. BILLS:

Cunningham Kramer Cunningham Havlicak

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Currently, s. 782.09, F.S., provides that the unlawful killing of an unborn quick child, by any injury to the mother of such child which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed murder in the same degree as that which would have been committed against the mother. The term "unborn quick child" is defined in accordance with the definition of "viable fetus" set forth in s. 782.071, F.S., which provides that a "fetus is viable when it becomes capable of meaningful life outside the womb through standard medical measures."

HB 513 amends s. 782.09, F.S., by replacing the term "unborn quick child" with "unborn child." The bill mirrors a recently-passed federal law by defining the term "unborn child" as "a member of the species homo sapiens, at any stage of development, who is carried in the womb." The bill conforms terminology in the vehicular homicide and DUI manslaughter statutes to refer to "unborn child."

HB 513 also amends s. 782.09, F.S., to specify that the offense does not require proof that the defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the underlying offense was pregnant, or that the defendant intended to cause the death of, or bodily injury to, the unborn child.

On February 26, 2008, the Criminal Justice Impact Conference determined that this bill would have an insignificant prison bed impact.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Safeguard Individual Liberty – This bill defines the term "unborn child" as a "member of the species homo sapiens, at any stage of development, who is carried in the womb," and revises terminology in various criminal statutes to refer to an "unborn child" rather than an "unborn quick child."

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Federal Law:

In 2004, the Unborn Victims of Violence Act (UVVA) was enacted. The UVVA amends title 18 of the U.S. Code and the Uniform Code of Military Justice¹ to add new sections for the "protection of unborn children." Under the act, any person who injures or kills a "child in utero" during the commission of certain specified crimes is guilty of an offense separate from one involving the pregnant woman. Punishment for the separate offense is the same as if the offense had been committed against the pregnant woman. In addition, an offense does not require proof that the person engaging in the misconduct had knowledge or should have had knowledge that the victim of the underlying offense was pregnant, or that the defendant intended to cause the death of, or bodily injury to, the child in utero. The phrase "child in utero" is defined by the act to mean "a member of the species homo sapiens, at any stage of development, who is carried in the womb."

State Law:

At least thirty-five states have statutes that criminalize the killing of a fetus or "unborn child." These statutes vary with respect to the point at which criminal liability will attach; that is, the states identify different gestational stages at which the killing of an embryo or fetus will result in criminal liability. Florida Statutes currently criminalize the killing of an "unborn quick child." Specifically, s. 782.09, F.S., provides that the unlawful killing of an unborn quick child, by any injury to the mother of such child which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed murder in the same degree as that which would have been committed against the mother. This section of statute does not authorize the prosecution of any person in connection with a termination of pregnancy pursuant to ch. 390, F.S.⁴ Currently, the term "unborn quick child" is defined in accordance with the definition of "viable fetus" set forth in s. 782.071, F.S., which provides that a "fetus is viable when it becomes capable of meaningful life outside the womb through standard medical measures."

Florida defines vehicular homicide as "the killing of a human being, or the killing of a viable fetus by any injury to the mother, caused by the operation of a motor vehicle by another in a reckless manner likely to cause the death of, or great bodily harm to, another." The vehicular homicide statute specifies that a right of action for civil damages exists under s. 768.19, F.S., for all deaths described in the statute.

In order to prove a DUI manslaughter case, the state must establish the following elements:

- The defendant operated a vehicle.
- The defendant, by reason of such operation, caused or contributed to the cause of the death of any human being or unborn quick child.⁶

¹ The Uniform Code of Military Justice is codified in chapter 47 U.S.C. 10.

⁴ s. 782.09(4), F.S.

⁵ s. 782.071, F.S.

⁶ The term "unborn quick child" is defined as a "viable fetus" which is defined as a "fetus is viable when it becomes capable of meaningful life outside the womb through standard medical measures." See s. 782.071, F.S.

- At the time of such operation, the defendant was under the influence of alcoholic beverages or a controlled substance to the extent that the defendant's normal faculties were impaired or the defendant had a blood alcohol level of .08 or higher.⁷

Effect of the Bill:

HB 513 amends s. 782.09, F.S., by replacing the term "unborn quick child" with "unborn child." The bill mirrors federal law by defining the term "unborn child" as "a member of the species homo sapiens, at any stage of development, who is carried in the womb." HB 513 also amends this statute to specify that the offense does not require proof that the defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the underlying offense was pregnant, or that the defendant intended to cause the death of, or bodily injury to, the unborn child.

HB 513 amends the vehicular homicide statute by replacing the term "viable fetus" with "unborn child," and specifies that that statute should not be construed to create or expand any civil cause of action for negligence based on statute or common law. The bill amends the DUI manslaughter statutes by replacing the term "unborn quick child" with "unborn child."

HB 513 also amends ss. 435.03 and 435.04, F.S., relating to employment screening standards, and s. 921.0022, F.S, the offense severity ranking chart of the Criminal Punishment Code, to conform terminology.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

2. Other:

While there is little Florida caselaw on point, an examination of cases from other states reveals that courts have upheld fetal homicide statutes. See e.g., People v. Davis, 872 P.2d 591 (Cal. 1994) (upholding the California legislature's addition of the phrase "or a fetus" to the state murder law); Smith v. Newsome, 815 F.2d 1386 (11th Cir. 1987) (holding that the argument that that an unborn child is not a "person" within the meaning of the Fourteenth Amendment is immaterial as to whether a state can prohibit the destruction of a fetus); Webster v. Reproductive Health Services, 492 U.S. 490 (1989) (holding that a state is free to enact laws that recognize unborn children, so long as the state does not include restrictions on abortion); Terence Chadwick Lawrence v. The State of Texas (No. PD 0236-07), issued November 21, 2007, (holding that the abortion-related rulings of the United States Supreme Court have no application to a statute that prohibits a third party from causing the death of a woman's unborn child against her will); See also, U.S. ex rel. Ford v. Ahitow, 888 F.Supp. 909 (C.D. III. 1995) and State v. Merrill, 450 N.W. 2d 318 (Minn. 1990).

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

A bill to be entitled

An act relating to offenses against unborn children; providing a short title; amending s. 782.071, F.S.; defining the term "unborn child" for purposes of vehicular homicide; revising terminology to refer to "unborn child" rather than "viable fetus"; providing legislative intent; amending s. 782.09, F.S.; revising terminology; providing that certain offenses relating to the killing of an unborn child by injury to the mother do not require specified knowledge or intent; amending ss. 316.193, 435.03, 435.04, and 921.0022; F.S.; conforming terminology; providing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the Legislature of the State of Florida:

Section 1. This act may be cited as the "Florida Unborn Victims of Violence Act."

Section 2. Section 782.071, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

782.071 Vehicular homicide.--"Vehicular homicide" is the killing of a human being, or the killing of an unborn child a viable fetus by any injury to the mother, caused by the operation of a motor vehicle by another in a reckless manner likely to cause the death of, or great bodily harm to, another.

- (1) Vehicular homicide is:
- (a) A felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(b) A felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084, if:

- 1. At the time of the accident, the person knew, or should have known, that the accident occurred; and
- 2. The person failed to give information and render aid as required by s. 316.062.

This paragraph does not require that the person knew that the accident resulted in injury or death.

- (2) For purposes of this section, the term "unborn child" means a member of the species homo sapiens, at any stage of development, who is carried in the womb a fetus is viable when it becomes capable of meaningful life outside the womb through standard medical measures.
- (3) A right of action for civil damages shall exist under s. 768.19, under all circumstances, for all deaths described in this section. However, this section shall not be construed to create or expand any civil cause of action for negligence based on statute or common law.
- (4) In addition to any other punishment, the court may order the person to serve 120 community service hours in a trauma center or hospital that regularly receives victims of vehicle accidents, under the supervision of a registered nurse, an emergency room physician, or an emergency medical technician pursuant to a voluntary community service program operated by the trauma center or hospital.
- Section 3. Section 782.09, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

782.09 Killing of unborn quick child by injury to mother.--

- (1) The unlawful killing of an unborn quick child, by any injury to the mother of such child which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed murder in the same degree as that which would have been committed against the mother. Any person, other than the mother, who unlawfully kills an unborn quick child by any injury to the mother:
- (a) Which would be murder in the first degree constituting a capital felony if it resulted in the mother's death commits murder in the first degree constituting a capital felony, punishable as provided in s. 775.082.
- (b) Which would be murder in the second degree if it resulted in the mother's death commits murder in the second degree, a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (c) Which would be murder in the third degree if it resulted in the mother's death commits murder in the third degree, a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (2) The unlawful killing of an unborn quick child by any injury to the mother of such child which would be manslaughter if it resulted in the death of such mother shall be deemed manslaughter. A person who unlawfully kills an unborn quick child by any injury to the mother which would be manslaughter if it resulted in the mother's death commits manslaughter, a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) The death of the mother resulting from the same act or criminal episode that caused the death of the unborn quick child does not bar prosecution under this section.

- (4) This section does not authorize the prosecution of any person in connection with a termination of pregnancy pursuant to chapter 390.
- (5) For purposes of this section, the definition of the term "unborn quick child" shall be determined in accordance with the definition of an unborn child viable fetus as set forth in s. 782.071.
- (6) An offense under this section does not require that the person engaging in the conduct:
- (a) Had knowledge or should have had knowledge that the victim of the underlying offense was pregnant; or
- (b) Intended to cause the death of, or bodily injury to, the unborn child.
- Section 4. Subsection (3) of section 316.193, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

BILL #:

HB 559

Distribution of Material Harmful to Minors

SPONSOR(S): Schenck and others

REFERENCE	ACTION	ANALYST	STAFF DIRECTOR
Committee on Homeland Security & Public Safety Safety & Security Council Policy & Budget Council	11 Y, 0 N	Cunningham Cunningham	Kramer Havlicak

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

There is currently a three-pronged test to determine whether material is harmful to minors. Specifically, material is harmful to minors if it depicts nudity, sexual conduct, or sexual excitement that:

- (a) Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors;
- (b) Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for minors; and
- (c) Taken as a whole, is without serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors.

HB 559 expands what materials might be determined harmful to minors by amending paragraph (b) to read, "Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material or conduct for minors."

The bill also provides that ignorance of a minor's age, a minor's misrepresentation of his or her age, a bona fide belief of a minor's age, or a minor's consent may not be raised as a defense in certain prosecutions relating to using minors in the production of certain materials and distributing obscene materials and materials that are harmful to minors.

HB 559 also increases the penalties related to the distribution of obscene materials when the materials depict a minor engaged in any act or conduct that is harmful to minors, and creates 3rd degree felony offenses that provide the following:

- A person may not knowingly use a minor in the production of certain materials that are harmful to minors.
- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic nudity to a minor.
- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, load, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic fondling to a minor.

On March 14, 2008, the Criminal Justice Impact Conference determined that this bill would have an insignificant prison bed impact.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote Personal Responsibility – This bill increases penalties related to the distribution of obscene materials when the materials depict a minor engaged in any act or conduct that is harmful to minors.

Safeguard Individual Liberty - The bill makes it a crime to knowingly use a minor in the production of any material that is harmful to minors and to knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic nudity or erotic fondling to a minor.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

There are a variety of statutes relating to the sexual exploitation of children. Sections 847.012, 847.0125, and 847.013, F.S., criminalize selling, distributing, or exposing minors to materials that are "harmful to minors." Section 827.071(4) and (5), F.S., criminalize the possession of certain materials that depict a child engaging in sexual conduct¹. Section 827.071(2) and (3), F.S., make using a child in a sexual performance² a crime.

Definition -- "Harmful to Minors"

Section 847.001, F.S., defines "harmful to minors" as:

Any reproduction, imitation, characterization, description, exhibition, presentation, or representation, of whatever kind or form, depicting nudity, sexual conduct, or sexual excitement when it:

- (a) Predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors;
- (b) Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material for minors; and
- (c) Taken as a whole, is without serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors.

Effect of the Bill

HB 559 expands what materials might be determined harmful to minors by amending paragraph (b) of the above definition as follows:

(b) Is patently offensive to prevailing standards in the adult community as a whole with respect to what is suitable material or conduct for minors; and

Obscene Materials

Section 847.001, F.S., defines "obscene" as:

STORAGE NAME:

h0559b.SSC.doc

¹ Section 827.071, F.S., defines "sexual conduct" as "actual or simulated sexual intercourse, deviate sexual intercourse, sexual bestiality, masturbation, or sadomasochistic abuse; actual lewd exhibition of the genitals; actual physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person is a female, breast, with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desire of either party; or any act or conduct which constitutes sexual battery or simulates that sexual battery is being or will be committed."

² Section 827.071, F.S., defines "sexual performance" as "any performance or part thereof which includes sexual conduct by a child of less than 18 years of age."

The status of material which:

- (a) The average person, applying contemporary community standards, would find, taken as a whole, appeals to the prurient interest;
- (b) Depicts or describes, in a patently offensive way, sexual conduct; and
- (c) Taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

Currently, it is a 1st degree misdemeanor³ for a person to distribute, sell, lend, give away, transmit, transmute, or show certain obscene materials.⁴ It is a 2nd degree misdemeanor⁵ for a person to knowingly have certain obscene material in one's possession, custody, or control.⁶

Effect of the Bill

HB 559 increases the above penalties to a 3rd degree felony⁷, ranked in level 6 of the Criminal Punishment Code, offense severity ranking chart, if the violation was based on materials that depict a minor engaged in any act or conduct that is harmful to minors. The bill also provides that ignorance of a minor's age, a minor's misrepresentation of his or her age, a bona fide belief of a minor's age, or a minor's consent may not be raised as a defense in a prosecution for the above-described crimes.

Selling / Distributing Harmful Materials to Minors

Section 847.012, F.S., makes it a 3rd degree felony for a person to knowingly to sell, rent, or loan for monetary consideration to a minor:

- Any picture, photograph, drawing, sculpture, motion picture film, videocassette, or similar visual representation or image of a person or portion of the human body which depicts nudity or sexual conduct, sexual excitement, sexual battery, bestiality, or sadomasochistic abuse and which is harmful to minors; or
- Any book, pamphlet, magazine, printed matter however reproduced, or sound recording which contains any matter defined in s. 847.001, explicit and detailed verbal descriptions or narrative accounts of sexual excitement, or sexual conduct and which is harmful to minors.

The term "knowingly" is defined as having the general knowledge of, reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

- The character and content of any material (described above) which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant; and
- The age of the minor; however, an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor.⁸

Effect of the Bill

HB 559 removes language from the definition of "knowingly" relating to the age of the minor. Specifically, the bill removes language providing that "an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse

³ A first degree misdemeanor is punishable by a term of imprisonment not exceeding 1 year and a $1,000 fine. See ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

⁴ See s. 847.011(1)(a), F.S.

⁵ A second degree misdemeanor is punishable by a term of imprisonment not exceeding 60 days and a $500 fine. See ss. 775.082 and 775.083.

⁶ See s. 847.011(2), F.S.

⁷ A third degree felony is punishable by up to five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine. ss. 775.082, 775.083, and 775.084, F.S.

⁸ s. 847.012, F.S.

from liability if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor." The bill adds a provision stating that "a person's ignorance of a minor's age, a minor's misrepresentation of his or her age, a bona fide belief or a minor's age, or a minor's consent may not be raised as a defense in a prosecution" for the above-described crimes.

HB 559 also makes it a 3rd degree felony, ranked in level 6 of the Criminal Punishment Code, offense severity ranking chart, for a person to knowingly use a minor in the production of any of the above-described material regardless of whether the material is intended for distribution to minors or is actually distributed to them.

Exposing Minors to Harmful Materials

Section 847.013, F.S., makes it a 1st degree misdemeanor for a person to:

- Knowingly exhibit for a monetary consideration to a minor or knowingly to sell or rent a videotape of a motion picture to a minor or knowingly sell to a minor an admission ticket or pass or knowingly admit a minor for a monetary consideration to premises whereon there is exhibited a motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation which, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, sexual battery, bestiality, or sadomasochistic abuse and which is harmful to minors; or
- Knowingly rent or sell, or loan to a minor for monetary consideration, a videocassette or a videotape of a motion picture, or similar presentation, which, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, sexual battery, bestiality, or sadomasochistic abuse and which is harmful to minors.

The term "knowingly" is defined as having general knowledge of, reason to know, or a belief or ground for belief which warrants further inspection or inquiry of both:

- The character and content of any motion picture (described above) which is reasonably susceptible of examination by the defendant, or the character of any exhibition, presentation, representation, or show (described above), other than a motion picture show, which is reasonably susceptible of being ascertained by the defendant; and
- The age of the minor; however, an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor.⁹

Effect of the Bill

HB 559 removes language from the definition of "knowingly" relating to the age of the minor. Specifically, the bill removes language providing that "an honest mistake shall constitute an excuse from liability if the defendant made a reasonable bona fide attempt to ascertain the true age of such minor." The bill then adds a provision stating that "a person's ignorance of a minor's age, a minor's misrepresentation of his or her age, a bona fide belief of a minor's age, or a minor's consent may not be raised as a defense in a prosecution" for the above-described crimes.

HB 559 also makes it a 1st degree misdemeanor for a person to knowingly use a minor in the production of any motion picture, exhibition, show, representation, or other presentation that, in whole or in part, depicts nudity, sexual conduct, sexual excitement, sexual battery, bestiality, or sadomasochistic abuse and that is harmful to minors.

HB 559 also adds to the legislative intent language of s. 847.013, F.S., to specify that it is the intent of the Legislature to preempt the field, to the exclusion of counties and municipalities, insofar as it concerns exposing persons under 17 years of age to harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, representations, presentations, and commercial or sexual exploitation.

Showing Obscene Materials to Minors

Section 847.0133, F.S., makes it a 3rd degree felony for a person to knowingly sell, rent, load, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any obscene material¹⁰ to a minor.

HB 559 creates the following 3rd degree felony offenses:

- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic nudity to a minor.
- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, load, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic fondling to a minor.

The bill defines "erotic nudity" as, "the display of the genitals, pubic area, or breasts of a person, or the undeveloped or developing genitals, breasts, or pubic area of a minor for the purpose of real or simulated overt sexual gratification or stimulation of a minor." The bill specifies that "displaying erotic nudity" means "its inclusion in any book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, videotape, videocassette, phonograph record, wire, tape, or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of erotic nudity."

The bill defines "erotic fondling" as "touching the clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or breasts of a person, or the developing or undeveloped genitals, pubic area, or breasts of a minor for the purpose of real or simulated overt sexual gratification or stimulation of a minor." The bill specifies that "displaying erotic fondling" means "its inclusion in any book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, videotape, videocassette, phonograph record, wire, tape, or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of erotic fondling."

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill appears to be exempt from the requirements of Article VII, Section 18 of the Florida Constitution because it is a criminal law.

2. Other:

The First Amendment to the United States Constitution and article I, section 4 of the Florida Constitution protect the rights of individuals to express themselves in a variety of ways. The constitutions protect not only speech and the written word, but also conduct intended to communicate. When laws attempt to restrict or burden fundamental and basic rights such as these, they must not only be directed toward a legitimate public purpose, but they must be drawn as narrowly as possible.

When legislation is drafted so that it may be applied to conduct that is protected by the First Amendment, it is said to be unconstitutionally overbroad. This overbreadth doctrine permits an individual whose own speech or conduct may be prohibited to challenge an enactment facially "because it also threatens others not before the court— those who desire to engage in legally protected expression but who may refrain from doing so rather than risk prosecution or undertake to have the law declared partially invalid." Brockett v. Spokane Arcades, Inc., 472 U.S. 491 (1985).

Florida case law is replete with instances in which the Florida Supreme Court has stricken an obscenity statute because of its overbreadth after considering the hypothetical consequences. For example, in Schmitt v. State¹¹, the Florida Supreme Court reviewed the definition of "sexual conduct" in the statute as it existed at the time (defined to include "actual physical contact with a person's clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or, if such person is a female, breast;....") and stated the following:

[T]he statutory definition of sexual conduct as drafted would prohibit possession of a picture of a father bathing his son, two clothed children hugging each other in such a way that their clothed genitals made actual physical contact, or a photograph of a junior high school coach giving a congratulatory smack of the hand to the buttocks of one of his players fully dressed in football uniform.

The Court held that the definition was overbroad and declared that portion of the statute void. 12

Section 5 of this bill creates the following 3rd degree felony offenses:

- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic nudity to a minor.
- A person may not knowingly sell, rent, load, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic fondling to a minor.

The bill's definition of the terms "erotic nudity" and "erotic fondling" are broad and could be interpreted to include any movie that revealed a woman's (or girl's) breasts, any television commercial or program that showed one person touching the clothed buttocks of another person, a photograph of a mother holding her naked baby, etc... For the reasons outlined above, this language raises constitutional overbreadth concerns.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

None.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

The following comments are applicable to the bill as filed. The strike-all amendment traveling with the bill addresses these issues.

Section 1

The definition of "harmful to minors" currently has as one of its requirements that the material "predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors." If this portion of the definition was intended to require that the material "predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest" of the community as a whole, the words "of minors" should be removed.

Section 2

The bill provides increased penalties for persons who violate s. 847.011(1) or (2), F.S., based on materials that depict a minor engaged in any act or conduct that is harmful to minors. In order to ensure that the increased penalty applies, line 59 should be amended to read:

(1)(a) Except as provided for in paragraph (c), any person who knowingly sells, lends, gives away,

Similarly, line 106 should be amended to read:

(2) Except as provided for in subsection (1)(c), a person who knowingly has in his or her possession,

Section 3

The bill creates a new crime prohibiting using a minor in the production of any material which is harmful to a minor. However, the title of the statute only refers to prohibiting the sale or distribution of harmful materials to minors.

Section 4

It appears that the language in section 4 that makes it a crime to use a minor in the production of certain materials that are harmful to minors is duplicative of the language in section 3.

Section 6

The bill ranks the 3rd degree felony violation of s. 847.011, F.S., in level 6 of the Criminal Punishment Code, offense severity ranking chart. Line 452 describes the crime as, "distributing, offering to distribute, or possessing with intent to distribute obscene materials to minors or depicting minors." The bill increases the penalty for persons who violate s. 847.011(1) or (2), F.S., based on materials that depict a minor engaged in any act or conduct that is harmful to minors. The bill does not increase the penalty for distributing obscene materials to minors.

Similarly, in s. 847.012, F.S., the bill creates the crime of knowingly using a minor in the production of certain materials that are harmful to minors. In the Criminal Punishment Code, offense severity ranking chart, the bill (line 453) appears to inaccurately describe the crime as "knowingly using a minor in the production of obscene or sexually explicit materials."

D. STATEMENT OF THE SPONSOR

Representative Schenck submitted the following statement:

House Bill 559, relating to the distribution of material harmful to minors, has been introduced to help protect innocent minors from being exploited by questionable "teen modeling agencies". There have been cases where our State's Attorney's offices have tried to prosecute such agencies but have been shot down due to an unclear definition of obscene material. House Bill 559, will provide a tool for the State Attorney's offices to prosecute individuals who take provocative photographs of children under the age of 21. This bill will help cease the existence of these suspect modeling agencies. In turn, these provocative photos of our youth, which are sometimes displayed on the internet, will be destroyed. As a father of two, I am devoted to making Florida a better, safer environment for our children, which House Bill 559 does.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 12, 2008, the Homeland Security & Public Safety Committee adopted a strike-all amendment and reported the bill favorably as amended. The strike-all amendment:

- Amends the definition of the term "harmful to minors" to require that the material predominantly appeals to the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest rather than the prurient, shameful, or morbid interest of minors;
- Removes the provisions in section 5 of the bill that prohibit a person from showing any material displaying erotic nudity or erotic fondling to a minor; and
- Makes technical changes

- (5)(4) LEGISLATIVE INTENT.--In order to make the application and enforcement of this section uniform throughout the state, it is the intent of the Legislature to preempt the field, to the exclusion of counties and municipalities, insofar as it concerns exposing persons under 17 years of age to harmful motion pictures, exhibitions, shows, representations, and presentations, and commercial or sexual exploitation. To that end, it is hereby declared that every county ordinance and every municipal ordinance adopted prior to July 1, 1969, and relating to such subject shall stand abrogated and unenforceable on and after such date and that no county, municipality, or consolidated county-municipal government shall have the power to adopt any ordinance relating to that subject on or after such effective date.

 Section 5. Section 847.0133, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

847.0133 Protection of minors; prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscenity; prohibition of displaying erotic nudity or erotic fondling to minors; penalty.--

- (1) A It is unlawful for any person may not knowingly to sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any obscene material to a minor. For purposes of this section "obscene material" means any obscene book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, videotape, videocassette, phonograph record, or wire or tape or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of such character, or any article or instrument for obscene use, or purporting to be for obscene use or purpose. The term "obscene" has shall have the same meaning as set forth in s. 847.001.
- (2) (a) A person may not knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic nudity to a minor. As used in this subsection, the term "erotic nudity" means the display of the genitals, pubic area, or breasts of a person, or the undeveloped or developing genitals, breasts, or public area of a minor for the purpose of real or simulated overt sexual gratification or stimulation of a minor. Displaying erotic nudity means its inclusion in any book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, videotape, videocassette, phonograph record, wire, tape, or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of erotic nudity.

(b) A person may not knowingly sell, rent, loan, give away, distribute, transmit, or show any material displaying erotic fondling to a minor. As used in this subsection, the term "erotic fondling" means touching the clothed or unclothed genitals, pubic area, buttocks, or breasts of a person, or the developing or undeveloped genitals, pubic area, or breasts of a minor for the purpose of real or simulated overt sexual gratification or stimulation of a minor. The term does not include physical contact that is not for the purpose of real or simulated overt sexual gratification or stimulation of a minor. Displaying erotic fondling means its inclusion in any book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, videotape, videocassette, phonograph record, wire, tape, or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory

The bill provides that a spaceflight entity is not liable for injury to or death of a spaceflight participant resulting from the inherent risks of spaceflight launch activities, so long as the required warning is given to and signed by the participant. The bill provides that a participant or participant's representative may not recover from a spaceflight entity for the loss, damage, or death of the participant resulting exclusively from any of the inherent risks of spaceflight activities if the spaceflight entity pleads the affirmative defense of assumption of the risk of spaceflight activities by the participant. The immunity provided by the bill does not apply if the spaceflight entity:

- Commits gross negligence or willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant:
- Has actual knowledge or reasonably should have known of a dangerous condition; or
- Intentionally injures the participant.

The limitation on liability provided by the bill is in addition to any other limitation of legal liability that might otherwise be provided by law.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government.

The bill takes effect on October 1, 2008.

This document does not reflect the intent or official position of the bill sponsor or House of Representatives.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote personal responsibility - The bill provides protection from civil liability to a spaceflight entity for injury to or death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of spaceflight launch activities.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Present Situation

Florida has an infrastructure of $7 billion in aerospace assets and an additional $2 billion in assets at the proposed Jacksonville Spaceport. Florida's aerospace industry is comprised of some 1000 companies and thousands of workers across the state. Human space flight operations are a critical part of Florida's economy – bringing $1.68 billion into the State annually and employing 30,000 people. However, there is growing competition from 13 other states, including nine states with spaceports. Florida has aerospace-related industry in 47 of its 67 counties. The global space industry is expected to bring in $220 billion in revenue in 2007, up from $207 billion in 2006. A concern for Florida is what will happen to the state's 9,300 aerospace workers between the retirement of the space shuttle fleet in 2010 and launches of the next-generation shuttle in 2013 to 2015.

Space Florida is the principal organization charged by the Florida Legislature with promoting and developing Florida's aerospace industry.² As reported by Space Florida:

Florida is the premier launch site for the aerospace industry. With our current infrastructure, competitive edge, and talented workforce, Florida is the natural state to establish an international aerospace spaceport. As home to one of only five commercially licensed spaceports in the United States, Florida has the ability to host commercial, civil and military space operations.

Increasing interest in capturing the aerospace business has some states stepping up their recruiting efforts and incentive plans. These states include California, Virginia, Colorado, Texas and New Mexico. We must aggressively retain and grow our state's aerospace industry to compete in this race.

In order to preserve the vibrant commercial aerospace industry and Florida's workforce, we must firmly position operations in Florida to capture the market of commercial launch business, and more importantly, service the International Space Station (ISS) for NASA. The United States portion of ISS has been designated a National Lab and offers Florida not only space-related support opportunities but also research opportunities in the unique space environment for Florida universities and companies.

[Florida must] maintain our competitive edge by recruiting new space and aerospace businesses to Florida, retaining those businesses being lured by other states, and assisting existing businesses with incentives and other support to expand their presence in Florida; limit the liability of commercial launch firms and their subcontractors who provide human spaceflight services from Florida launch sites; and help Florida attract commercial launch providers and their subcontractors by limiting liability for human Space flight services from Florida launch sites.3

Federal Law

President Bush signed the Commercial Space Launch Amendments Act of 2004 (Space Launch Act) into law on December 23, 2004. The Space Launch Act enacted protections for space tourism. businesses such as the "fly at your own risk" clause that allows a licensed party to carry space flight participants only if they "inform the space flight participant in writing about the risks of the launch and reentry, including the safety record of the launch or reentry vehicle type..." After being fully informed, the participant must also give written consent.⁶ The Space Launch Act includes the commercial human space flight industry in a temporary indemnification and insurance scheme that requires businesses to purchase insurance, but provides government indemnification up to $1.5 billion beyond the insurance cap⁷ shielding them from high insurance costs due to the risk of a catastrophic event.

Other States

In 2007, Virginia adopted legislation⁸ that is the model for HB 737. The Virginia law⁹, however, is not limited to suborbital space activity, but includes all space activity - suborbital or beyond (orbital). The Virginia law applies to launch services or reentry services as defined by the federal Space Launch Act. 10 The Space Launch Act defines these services as:

"launch services" means-

- (A) activities involved in the preparation of a launch vehicle, payload, crew (including crew training), or space flight participant for launch; and
- (B) the conduct of a launch.

"reentry services" means—

- (A) activities involved in the preparation of a reentry vehicle and payload, crew (including crew training), or space flight participant, if any, for reentry; and
- (B) the conduct of a reentry. 11

Further, the Virginia law does not provide immunity from "the inherent risks of spaceflight", but rather "for a participant injury resulting from the risks of space flight activities." 12

Exculpatory Clauses¹³

Exculpatory clauses extinguish or limit liability of a potentially culpable party through the use of disclaimer, assumption of risk and indemnification clauses as well as releases of liability. Exculpatory clauses will be enforced as long as the language is clear and unequivocal. 14 These same concepts apply to indemnification agreements, which shift liability for damages to another party, and to releases of liability.¹⁵ On the other hand, exculpatory clauses that extinguish liability for intentional torts or reckless harm will generally be declared null and void.¹⁶

Effect of Proposed Changes

The bill provides that a spaceflight entity is not liable for injury to or death of a spaceflight participant resulting from the inherent risks of spaceflight launch activities, so long as the required warning is given to and signed by the participant. The bill provides that a participant or participant's representative may not recover from a spaceflight entity for the loss, damage, or death of the participant resulting exclusively from any of the inherent risks of spaceflight activities if the spaceflight entity pleads the affirmative defense¹⁷ of assumption of the risk of spaceflight activities by the participant. The immunity provided by the bill does not apply if the injury was proximately caused by the spaceflight entity and the spaceflight entity:

- Commits gross negligence or willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant;
- Has actual knowledge or reasonably should have known of a dangerous condition; or
- Intentionally injures the participant.

To receive the immunity provided by the bill, the spaceflight entity must have each participant sign the required warning statement. The warning statement must contain, at a minimum, the following statement:

"WARNING: Under Florida law, there is no liability for an injury to or death of a participant in a spaceflight activity provided by a spaceflight entity if such injury or death results from the inherent risks of the spaceflight activity. Inherent risks of spaceflight activities include, among others, risks of injury to land, equipment, persons, and animals, as well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death. You are assuming the risk of participating in this spaceflight activity."

The limitation on liability provided by the bill is in addition to any other limitation of legal liability that might otherwise be provided by law.

The bill defines the following terms:

"Participant" means any person, passenger, or crew member participating in spaceflight activities.

"Spaceflight activities" means any activities necessary or antecedent to preparing, launching, carrying, or landing a participant on a suborbital flight.

¹⁷ An affirmative defense is "A defendant's assertion of facts and arguments that, if true, will defeat the plaintiff's or prosecution's claim, even if all the allegations in the complaint are true. The defendant bears the burden of proving an affirmative defense. Examples of affirmative defenses are duress (in a civil case) and insanity and self-defense (in a criminal case). Black's Law Dictionary (8th ed. 2004).

"Spaceflight entity" means any public or private entity holding a United States Federal Aviation Administration launch, reentry, operator, or launch site license for suborbital flight.

"Suborbital flight" means a flight that is not intended to complete an orbit around the earth and that has any portion of its intended flight path at altitude equal to or greater than 62.5 miles above the earth's mean sea level.

The bill has an effective date of October 1, 2008.

C. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1: Creates Part III of Chapter 331, F.S., consisting of s. 331.501, F.S., relating to informed consent for suborbital spaceflight.

Section 2: Provides an effective date of October 1, 2008.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

1. Revenues:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on state revenues.

2. Expenditures:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on state expenditures.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government revenues.

2. Expenditures:

The bill does not appear to have any impact on local government expenditures.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

The bill is designed to encourage the expansion of the commercial space industry in Florida and therefore, serve as an economic stimulus to the private sector.

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

None.

III. COMMENTS

A. CONSTITUTIONAL ISSUES:

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

Not applicable because this bill does not appear to require counties or cities to: spend funds or take action requiring the expenditure of funds; reduce the authority of counties or cities to raises revenues in the aggregate; or reduce the percentage of a state tax shared with counties or cities.

2. Other:

Access to Courts

Article I, section 21 of the Florida Constitution provides: "The courts shall be open to every person for redress of any injury, and justice shall be administered without sale, denial or delay." The Florida Constitution protects "only rights that existed at common law or by statute prior to the enactment of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution." In order to make a colorable claim of denial of access to courts, an aggrieved party must demonstrate that the Legislature has abolished a common-law right previously enjoyed by the people of Florida and, if so, that it has not provided a reasonable alternative for redress and that there is not an "overpowering public necessity" for eliminating the right. This right could be implicated if a court were to find that the bill abolishes a right of access to the courts that existed at common law or by statute prior to the enactment of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution. However, it is unlikely that a cause of action exists presently for injury or death caused exclusively by the "inherent risks" of suborbital spaceflight.

B. RULE-MAKING AUTHORITY:

The bill does not appear to create a need for rulemaking or rulemaking authority.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

Members may want to consider if the term "antecedent" on line 22 is too broad when applied to the definition of "spaceflight activities."

Members may want to consider removing the word "launch" on line 34. On lines 34 and 35, the bill uses the term "space launch activities" - but elsewhere in the bill the term "spaceflight activities" is used. This appears to be inconsistent.

It appears that the phrase on lines 74 and 75 – "Inherent risks of spaceflight activities include, among others, risks of injury to land, equipment, persons, ..." – may be a bit confusing. A better phrase may be – "Injuries caused by the inherent risks of spaceflight activities may include, among others, injury to land, equipment, persons, ..."

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 12, 2008, the Committee on Constitution & Civil Law recommended four amendments to the bill. The amendments provide as follows:

Amendment 1:

- Expands the application of the bill from just suborbital spaceflight activities to include all spaceflight activities.
- Amends the definition of "spaceflight activities" to include only those activities necessary to preparing, launching, carrying, or landing a vehicle and any payload, crew, or participant from Earth rather than also including those activities merely "antecedent" to such.

¹⁸ Fla. Jur. 2d., s. 360.

¹⁹ Kluger v. White, 281 So.2d 1, 4 (Fla. 1973).

²⁰ The enactment of the Declaration of Rights of the Florida Constitution was part of Florida's new constitution of 1968 and occurred when it was ratified by the electorate on November 5, 1968.

• Corrects a reference on lines 34 and 35 of the bill referring to "spaceflight launch activities" to read "spaceflight activities."

Amendment 2 removes the word "gross" from line 49 of the bill in order to specifically exclude all negligence from those risks that may be included within the phrase "inherent risks of spaceflight activities."

Amendment 3 rephrases language in the mandatory warning statement for clarity.

Amendment 4 removes the requirement in the bill that the immunity must be pled as an affirmative defense.

III of ch. 331, F.S.; providing definitions; providing immunity from liability for injury to or death of certain suborbital flight participants if specified informed consent requirements are complied with; providing exceptions; requiring each participant to sign a warning statement; providing minimum requirements for a warning statement; providing an effective date.

PART III

SPACEFLIGHT

- 331.501 Suborbital spaceflight; informed consent.--
- (1) For purposes of this section, the term:
- (a) "Participant" means any person, passenger, or crew member participating in spaceflight activities.
- (b) "Spaceflight activities" means any activities necessary or antecedent to preparing, launching, carrying, or landing a participant on a suborbital flight.

- (c) "Spaceflight entity" means any public or private entity holding a United States Federal Aviation Administration launch, reentry, operator, or launch site license for suborbital flight.

(d) "Suborbital flight" means a flight that is not intended to complete an orbit around the earth and that has any portion of its intended flight path at altitude equal to or greater than 62.5 miles above the earth's mean sea level.

- (2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b), a spaceflight entity is not liable for injury to or death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of spaceflight launch activities, so long as the warning contained in subsection (3) is distributed and signed as required. Except as provided in paragraph (b), no participant or participant's representative may maintain an action against or recover from a spaceflight entity for the loss, damage, or death of the participant resulting exclusively from any of the inherent risks of spaceflight activities; provided that, in any action for damages against a spaceflight entity for spaceflight activities, the spaceflight entity shall plead the affirmative defense of assumption of the risk of spaceflight activities by the participant.
- (b) Nothing in paragraph (a) shall prevent or limit the liability of a spaceflight entity if the spaceflight entity does any one or more of the following:
- 1. Commits an act or omission that constitutes gross negligence or willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant and that act or omission proximately causes injury, damage, or death to the participant;
- 2. Has actual knowledge or reasonably should have known of a dangerous condition on the land or in the facilities or equipment used in the spaceflight activities and the danger proximately causes injury, damage, or death to the participant; or

3. Intentionally injures the participant.

- (c) Any limitation on legal liability afforded by this subsection to a spaceflight entity is in addition to any other limitation of legal liability otherwise provided by law.
- (3) (a) Every spaceflight entity providing spaceflight activities to a participant, whether such activities occur on or off a facility capable of launching a suborbital flight, shall have each participant sign the warning statement specified in paragraph (b).
- (b) The warning statement described in paragraph (a) shall contain, at a minimum, the following statement:

"WARNING: Under Florida law, there is no liability for an injury to or death of a participant in a spaceflight activity provided by a spaceflight entity if such injury or death results from the inherent risks of the spaceflight activity. Inherent risks of spaceflight activities include, among others, risks of injury to land, equipment, persons, and animals, as well as the potential for you to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death. SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill amends s. 812.14, F.S. to provide that a person commits a third degree felony if the person obtains or uses unauthorized utility services, or alters or tampers with utility property in violation of the current provisions of s. 812.14(2), F.S. for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of a controlled substance.

The bill also amends s. 812.14, F.S. to provide that theft of utility services for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of a controlled substance is a third degree felony.

The bill provides it is prima facie evidence of a person's intent to commit each offense if:

- A person violates the current provisions of s. 812.14, F.S. or commits theft of utility services, resulting in a dwelling or structure receiving unauthorized utility services:
- A controlled substance and materials for manufacturing, growing, or cultivating the controlled substance were found in the structure or dwelling; and
- The person knew of the presence of the controlled substance and materials for manufacturing, growing, or cultivating the controlled substance in the structure or dwelling, regardless of whether the person was involved in the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of the controlled substance.

The bill has an effective date of July 1, 2008.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met on February 26, 2008 and determined this bill would have an insignificant prison bed impact.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Promote Personal Responsibility: The bill provides that either a violation of current s. 812.14(2), F.S., or the theft of utility services for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of a controlled substance is a third degree felony.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Background

Cultivation of marijuana in a "grow house" requires grow lamps, fans, air conditioning, and other equipment that uses a significant amount of electricity. The electricity use in such a grow house would be well above the normal electricity use of a similarly sized house. To prevent utilities and law enforcement from detecting abnormal electricity use and becoming suspicious about possible criminal activity, marijuana growers often tamper with utility meters so the meters register a lower amount of electricity consumption than what is actually used. In some cases, the marijuana growers connect the grow houses directly to the power grid without the consent of the utility service.

Current Situation

The degrees of punishment under the current theft statute, s. 812.014, F.S., are primarily based upon the dollar value of the stolen property.² There are specific circumstances in which the dollar value threshold amounts which qualify for a higher level of punishment are altered or eliminated if a certain type of property³ is stolen or if certain conditions occur related to the theft⁴. Under current Florida law, there is no specific provision regarding theft of utility services in s. 812.014, F.S.⁵ As a result, absent one of the other exceptions, the criminal penalties for theft of utility services would be based on dollar value threshold amounts.

Section 812.14, F.S. defines a utility as "any person, firm, corporation, or association, or political subdivision, whether private, municipal, county, or cooperative, which is engaged in the sale, generation, provision, or delivery of gas, electricity, heat, water, oil, sewer service, telephone service, telegraph service, radio service or telecommunications service."

Currently, s. 812.14, F.S. provides a person commits a first degree misdemeanor⁶ if the person⁷:

¹ http://www.tcpalm.com/news/2007/nov/29/3020-arrested-in-connection-with-pot-growing/

² See generally, s. 821.012, F.S. If the stolen property is valued at $100,000 or more, the offense is a first degree felony. If the stolen property is valued at between $20,000 and $100,00, the offense is a second degree felony. If the stolen property is valued at between $300 and $20,000, the offense is a third degree felony. If the stolen property is valued between $100 and $300, the offense is a first degree misdemeanor. If the stolen property is under $100, the offense is a second degree misdemeanor.

³ E.g. firearms, a will, a fire extinguisher, citrus fruit, a stop sign, emergency medical equipment, law enforcement equipment, etc.

⁴ E.g. theft during a state of emergency, use of a motor vehicle, damage to property during the course of the theft, theft of cargo in interstate commerce, etc.

⁵ Section 812.014, F.S.

⁶ A first degree misdemeanor is punishable by up to 1 year in jail and a $1,000 fine. Sections 775.082, 775.083, F.S.

- Willfully alters, tampers, or injures a meter, meter seal, pipe, conduit, wire, line, cable, transformer, amplifier or other device belonging to a utility as to cause loss or damage; to prevent the meter from registering the actual quantity of electricity, gas, or water used; or to knowingly use electricity, gas, or water which passed through an altered meter, wire, pipe, or fitting.
- Makes or causes to be made a connection with a wire, main, service pipe or other pipes, appliance, or appurtenance to use electricity, water, or gas without the consent of the utility.
- Uses or receives the direct benefit from a utility if the person, knows, or should have known, that the utility services were obtained by the direct result of tampering, altering, or injuring a wire, conductor, meter, pipe, conduit, line, cable, transformer, amplifier, or other apparatus.

Section 812.14(5), F.S. provides that a person who unlawfully obtains utility services is subject to civil liability for three times the amount of utility services unlawfully obtained or $1,000, whichever is greater.

Proposed Changes

The bill amends s. 812.14, F.S. to provide that a person commits a third degree felony⁸ if the person violates the current provisions of s. 812.14(2), F.S. for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of a controlled substance⁹. The bill provides it is prima facie evidence of a person's intent to violate the newly created offense if:

- A person violates the current provisions of s. 812.14, F.S. (listed above), resulting in a dwelling or structure receiving unauthorized utility services;
- A controlled substance and materials for manufacturing, growing, or cultivating the controlled substance were found in the structure or dwelling; and
- The person knew of the presence of the controlled substance and materials for manufacturing, growing, or cultivating the controlled substance in the structure or dwelling, regardless of whether the person was involved in the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of the controlled substance.

The bill does not rank the new third degree felony in the Offense Severity Ranking Chart. An unranked third degree felony defaults to a Level 1 for purposes of sentencing. 11

HB 837 further amends s. 812.14, F.S. to provide that theft of utility services for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture, growth, or cultivation of a controlled substance is a third degree felony. The bill provides it is prima facie evidence of a person's intent to violate the newly created offense if the factors listed above exist.

The bill does not rank the new third degree felony in the Offense Severity Ranking Chart. An unranked third degree felony defaults to a Level 1 for purposes of sentencing.

Representative Grimsley offered the following:

Amendment (with title amendment)

Remove everything after the enacting clause and insert: Section 1. Section 812.14, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

- 812.14 Trespass and larceny with relation to utility fixtures; theft of utility services .--
- As used in this section, "utility" includes any person, firm, corporation, association, or political subdivision, whether private, municipal, county, or cooperative, which is engaged in the sale, generation, provision, or delivery of gas, electricity, heat, water, oil, sewer service, telephone service, telegraph service, radio service, or telecommunication service.
- (2) As used in this section, "manufacture" has the same meaning as in s. 893.02(13)(a).
 - $(3)\frac{(2)}{(2)}$ It is unlawful to:
- (a) Willfully alter, tamper with, injure, or knowingly suffer to be injured any meter, meter seal, pipe, conduit, wire, line, cable, transformer, amplifier, or other apparatus or device belonging to a utility line service in such a manner as to cause loss or damage or to prevent any meter installed for registering electricity, gas, or water from registering the quantity which otherwise would pass through the same; or to alter the index or break the seal of any such meter; or in any way to hinder or interfere with the proper action or just registration of any such meter or device; or knowingly to use, waste, or suffer the waste, by any means, of electricity or gas or water passing through any such meter, wire, pipe, or fitting, or other appliance or appurtenance connected with or belonging to any such utility, after such meter, wire, pipe or fitting, or other appliance or appurtenance has been tampered with, injured, or altered.

- (b) Make or cause to be made any connection with any wire, main, service pipe or other pipes, appliance, or appurtenance in such manner as to use, without the consent of the utility, any service or any electricity, gas, or water, or to cause to be supplied any service or electricity, gas, or water from a utility to any person, firm, or corporation or any lamp, burner, orifice, faucet, or other outlet whatsoever, without such service being reported for payment or such electricity, gas, or water passing through a meter provided by the utility and used for measuring and registering the quantity of electricity, gas, or water passing through the same.
- (c) Use or receive the direct benefit from the use of a utility knowing, or under such circumstances as would induce a reasonable person to believe, that such direct benefits have resulted from any tampering with, altering of, or injury to any connection, wire, conductor, meter, pipe, conduit, line, cable, transformer, amplifier, or other apparatus or device owned,

- operated, or controlled by such utility, for the purpose of avoiding payment.
- (d) Violate paragraph (a), paragraph (b), or paragraph (c) for the purpose of facilitating the manufacture of a controlled substance.
- (4)(3) The presence on property in the actual possession of a person of any device or alteration that which affects the diversion or use of the services of a utility so as to avoid the registration of such use by or on a meter installed by the utility or so as to otherwise avoid the reporting of use of such service for payment is shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this section by such person; however, this presumption does shall not apply unless:

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Currently, a homeowner may display a portable, removable United States flag and another official, portable, removable flag in a respectful manner notwithstanding any association rule that would prohibit or limit the display of such a flag.

This bill provides that a homeowner may display a United States flag and another official flag on a freestanding flagpole not more than 20 feet high in the front, rear, or side yard of a homeowner's property regardless of any homeowners' association rules or declarations.

This bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact on state or local government revenues or expenditures.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Safeguard individual liberty -- This bill allows homeowners to display a United States flag on a freestanding pole in their yard.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Background

The term homeowners' association means a Florida corporation responsible for the operation of a subdivision in which voting membership is made up of parcel ownership and in which membership is a mandatory condition of parcel ownership and which is authorized to impose assessments that, if unpaid, may become a lien on the parcel.¹ Homeowners' associations are regulated under ch. 720, F.S.

A declaration of covenants is a written instrument that is recorded in the public records of the county in which the homeowners' association is located.² A declaration runs with the land³ and subjects the land comprising the community to the jurisdiction and control of an association or associations.⁴ Homeowners' associations have the authority to enact rules for the benefit of the community.

Flags are generally held to be entitled to First Amendment protection as variants of speech.⁵ In Gerber v. Longboat Harbor North Condominium, Inc., the United States District for the Middle District of Florida found that condominium unit owners have a right to respectfully display the United States flag. While the suit was pending, the Florida Legislature passed a bill to ensure the right to display a United States flag. The court held in Gerber that the statute which was passed had merely recognized the plaintiffs' previously existing federal constitutional right to display the flag. The court further held that the statute did not create rights and, therefore, did not impair existing contract rights.⁶

Currently, s. 720.304, F.S., provides that, regardless of any covenants or rules, a homeowner subject to the covenants and restrictions of a mandatory homeowners' association may display one portable, removable United States flag in a respectful manner. The statute also provides that a portable, official flag representing the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard may be displayed as well on Armed Forces Day, Memorial Day, Flag Day, Independence Day, and Veterans Day in a respectful manner.

Effect of Bill

This bill provides that, regardless of any declarations or rules of a homeowners' association, a homeowner may display one official United States Flag not larger than 4 feet by 6 feet on a pole not to exceed 20 feet in height in the front, rear or side yard of a homeowner's property as long as it is done in a respectful manner. Furthermore, this bill provides that one official State of Florida flag, POW-MIA flag, or a flag that represents the United States Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard may be displayed below the United States Flag. This flag must not be larger than 3 feet by 5 feet. This bill does not place any restrictions on which days the flags may be displayed.

1. Applicability of Municipality/County Mandates Provision:

This bill does not appear to require counties or municipalities to take an action requiring the expenditure of funds, reduce the authority that counties or municipalities have to raise revenue in the aggregate, nor reduce the percentage of state tax shared with counties or municipalities.

C. DRAFTING ISSUES OR OTHER COMMENTS:

Right to a Portable Flag

This bill provides that a homeowner may display a flag on a freestanding flagpole. However, this bill removes language which allows a homeowner to display a removable, portable flag. Therefore, this bill may be interpreted to remove the current right of a homeowner to display a portable flag.

Roadways and Easements

Most residential lots are subject to one or more easements for road, drainage, or utility purposes. To the extent that this bill may allow a flagpole to be erected within an easement, it may unreasonably affect easement rights and usage.

IV. AMENDMENTS/COUNCIL SUBSTITUTE CHANGES

On March 5, 2008, the Committee on Courts adopted one amendment to this bill. The amendment made the following revisions to the bill:

• Removes the provision that would have eliminated the right to fly a portable, removable flag.

STORAGE NAME:

- Provides that a flagpole may not be erected within any easements or obstruct sight lines at intersections.
- Provides that, in addition to mandatory homeowners associations, s. 720.304, F.S., will apply to nonmandatory homeowners' associations and community development districts.7

The bill was then reported favorably with an amendment.

SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Chapter 796 provides criminal and civil penalties for a variety of prostitution-related offenses. The bill:

- Increases the felony degree of the offenses of procuring a person under the age of 18 for prostitution, compelling or forcing a person to become a prostitute, and sex trafficking.
- Modifies the nuisance statute to provide that any place, structure, building, trailer or other conveyance that has been used on more than two occasions within a 6-month period, as the site of a violation of chapter 796 can be declared a nuisance.
- Provides that the offense of deriving support from the proceeds of prostitution applies if a person with reasonable belief or knowing another person is engaged in prostitution lives or derives support or maintenance directly or indirectly from what is believed to be the earnings or proceeds of prostitution.
- Expands the offense of leasing or renting a place or structure with the knowledge that it will be used for the purpose of prostitution to also include a person who owns such a location with the knowledge that it will be used for any violation of chapter 796.
- Creates a section of statute which provides that if a business entity is convicted of a violation of chapter 796, the court may, when appropriate order:
 - > Its dissolution or reorganization:
 - > The suspension or revocation of any license; or
 - > The surrender of its charter, if organized under the laws of this state, or any certificate to conduct business in this state, if it is not organized by the laws of this state.
- Adds predicate offenses from chapter 796 to the RICO statute.

The Criminal Justice Impact Conference met on March 14, 2008, and determined this bill would have an insignificant prison bed impact.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. HOUSE PRINCIPLES ANALYSIS:

Provide limited government: The bill increases the penalties for several criminal offenses.

B. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Chapter 796 contains several sections of statute which create criminal penalties for a variety of prostitution related offense as discussed further below.

Definitions: The bill removes definitions contained in several sections of statute within chapter 796 and creates a new section of statute which will apply these definitions to all of the sections contained within the chapter.

Procuring a person under age 18 for prostitution: Section 796.03, F.S. prohibits procuring a person under the age of 18 for prostitution.¹ The offense is currently a second degree felony. HB 1151 amends this section to make the offense a first degree felony. This will have the effect of increasing the maximum sentence that may be imposed for the offense. The statutory maximum sentence for a third degree felony is five years imprisonment; for a second degree felony is fifteen years imprisonment and for a first degree felony is thirty years imprisonment.²

Compelling or forcing another person to become a prostitute: Section 796.04, F.S. provides that it a third degree felony to force, compel or coerce another person to become a prostitute. The bill makes this offense a first degree felony.

Sex trafficking: Section 796.045, F.S. provides that any person who knowingly recruits, entices, harbors, transports, provides or obtains by any means a person, knowing that force, fraud, or coercion will be used to cause that person to engage in prostitution commits the offense of sex trafficking. The offense is a second degree felony. If the victim of the offense was under the age of 14 or if the offense results in death, the offense is a first degree felony. The bill changes the offense of sex trafficking that involves a victim less than 14 years of age to include a victim less than 18 years of age. The bill makes the offense of sex trafficking a first degree felony when it does not involve a victim under the age of 18 and makes the offense a life felony when it involves a victim under the age of 18 or if it results in death.

Section 796.035, F.S. provides that any parent, legal guardian, or other person having custody or control of a minor who sells or transfers custody of the minor with knowledge that, as a consequence of the sale or transfer, force, fraud, or coercion will be used to cause the minor to engage in prostitution or otherwise participate in the trade of sex trafficking commits a first degree felony. The bill makes this offense a life felony.

The bill combines sections 796.045 and 796.035 into one section of statute. The bill also makes conforming changes to the sexual predator (s. 775.21, F.S.) and sexual offender (ss.943.0435, 944.606 and 944.607, F.S.) statutes.

¹ In Petty v. State, 761 So.2d 474 (Fla. 3rd DCA 2000), the court reversed a conviction where the defendant paid a minor to have sex with him where there was no evidence that the minor was exploited for the defendants personal gain or that a third party was involved. The court held that the "statute at issue addresses the criminal act of hiring of a minor for sexual activity with a third party. The term 'procurement' connotes a pecuniary gain from the exploitation of another.... [I]n the context of prostitution, the word 'procure' must be given its specialized meaning, which is to 'obtain as a prostitute for another,' connoting a commercial motive." (quoting Kobel v. State, 745 So.2d 979 (Fla. 4th DCA 1999)).

Deriving support from the proceeds of prostitution: Section 796.05, F.S. makes it a third degree felony for any person with reasonable belief or knowing that another person is engaged in prostitution to live or derive support or maintenance in whole or in part from what is believed to be the earnings or proceeds of such person's prostitution.³ The bill amends this section to apply this offense to living or deriving support "directly or indirectly" from prostitution proceeds.

Renting space for lewdness, assignation or prostitution: Section 796.06, F.S. provides that it is a second degree misdemeanor to let or rent any place, structure or trailer or other conveyance, with the knowledge that it will be used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution. The bill modifies this language to provide that any person who owns, establishes, maintains, lets, rents or operates any place, structure, building or part thereof or trailer or other conveyance with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that it is being used or will be used in whole or in part for the purpose of activity prohibited under chapter 796, commits a third degree felony.

Prostitution: Currently, section 796.07, F.S. provides that it is unlawful:

- (a) To own, establish, maintain, or operate any place, structure, building, or conveyance for the purpose of lewdness, assignation, or prostitution.
- (b) To offer, or to offer or agree to secure, another for the purpose of prostitution or for any other lewd or indecent act.
- (c) To receive, or to offer or agree to receive, any person into any place, structure, building, or conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation, or to permit any person to remain there for such purpose.
- (d) To direct, take, or transport, or to offer or agree to direct, take, or transport, any person to any place, structure, or building, or to any other person, with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the purpose of such directing, taking, or transporting is prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.
- (e) To offer to commit, or to engage in, prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.
- (f) To solicit, induce, entice, or procure another to commit prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.
- (g) To reside in, enter, or remain in, any place, structure, or building, or to enter or remain in any conveyance, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness, or assignation.
- (h) To aid, abet, or participate in any of the acts or things enumerated in this subsection.
- (i) To purchase the services of any person engaged in prostitution.

HB 1151 amends this section to remove the provision making it unlawful to own, establish, maintain or operate any place, structure, building or conveyance for the purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution. This offense will be covered by the changes made to section 796.06, F.S., discussed above.

The bill also makes other changes to this section in order to clarify what offenses are prohibited by this section and what offenses are prohibited by other sections within the chapter.

³ State v. Morris, 540 So.2d 226, 226 -227 (Fla. 5th DCA 1989)("The information is deficient and fails to state a violation of the statute because it fails to allege that appellant derived support from the prostitution earnings. It merely says he got support from her, knowing she was a prostitute. At the hearing below appellant's attorney convinced the judge to dismiss the case with the argument that merely knowing she was a prostitute and receiving support do not necessarily combine to make a violation of the statute. We agree. In order to charge a crime under the statute it must be alleged the accused lived from or derived support from the prostitution earnings.")

Coercion or inducement – civil cause of action: According to section 796.09, F.S., a person has a cause of action for compensatory and punitive damages against:

- (a) A person who coerced⁴ that person into prostitution;
- (b) A person who coerces that person to remain in prostitution; or
- (c) A person who uses coercion to collect or receive any part of that person's earnings derived from prostitution.

The bill will apply the cause of action to a person who coerced or *induced*⁵ that person to become a prostitute or remain in prostitution or who used coercion or inducement to collect earnings derived from prostitution.

The section currently provides that certain facts do not constitute a defense to a complaint under this section including that:

- (a) The plaintiff was paid or otherwise compensated for acts of prostitution;
- (b) The plaintiff engaged in acts of prostitution prior to any involvement with the defendant; or
- (c) The plaintiff made no attempt to escape, flee, or otherwise terminate contact with the defendant.

Under the bill, the fact that the plaintiff stipulated or otherwise agreed that the prohibited acts did not occur as a result of coercion or inducement will not constitute a defense to a complaint under this section. Further, in the case of a cause of action based on inducement, the fact that the victim consented will not be a defense.

Current law authorizes the court to award prevailing plaintiff's reasonable attorney's fees and costs. The bill will require the court to award these costs and fees.

Civil remedies for criminal offenses: Chapter 772 is known as the "Civil Remedies for Criminal Practices Act". Section 772.103, F.S. makes it unlawful for a person with criminal intent to receive any proceeds derived, directly or indirectly, from a pattern of criminal activity. Section 772.104, F.S. provides that any person who proves by clear and convincing evidence that he or she has been injured by reason of any violation of s. 772.103, F.S. has a cause of action for threefold the actual damages sustained and reasonable attorney's fees and court costs. Section 772.102 defines the term "criminal activity" to include a list of criminal offenses. Several offenses within chapter 796 are currently included within the definition. The bill adds section 796.06, F.S., relating to owning or renting a place for the purpose of any activity prohibited under chapter 796, to the definition of criminal activity.

⁴ The bill provides that the term coerces means uses force or intimidation, or any practice of domination or restraint, in order to bring about or cause a person to take certain action. The term includes, but is not limited to, the use of:

⁽c) Kidnapping.

⁽f) Threat of legal complaint or report of delinquency.

⁽g) Threat to interfere with parental rights or responsibilities, whether by judicial or administrative action or otherwise.

⁽i) Exploitation of a condition of developmental disability, cognitive limitation, affective disorder, or substance dependency.

⁽j) Exploitation of victimization by sexual abuse.

⁽¹⁾ Exploitation of human needs for food, shelter, safety, or affection.

⁵ The bill defines the term "induces" to mean "offers, promises or withholds or threatens to withhold, a benefit or advantage, whether legal, financial, or otherwise, such as a promise of marriage, employment, or material support or advantage, in order to bring about or cause a person to take certain action.

RICO: Sections 895.01 – 895.06, F.S. are known as the Florida Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organization Act (RICO Act) The sections contain criminal penalties and a civil cause of action for racketeering activity. Section 895.02, F.S. defines the term "racketeering activity" to include a list of criminal offenses including several offenses within chapter 796. The bill adds section 796.06, F.S., relating to owning or renting a place for the purpose of any activity prohibited under chapter 796, to the definition.

Violation by a business entity of chapter 796: The bill creates s. 796.10, F.S. which provides that if a business entity is convicted of a violation of chapter 796, the court may, when appropriate order:

- Its dissolution or reorganization;
- The suspension or revocation of any license, including, but not limited to, any occupational license, license under chapter 561⁶, permit or prior approval granted to the business entity by a state agency; or
- The surrender of its charter, if organized under the laws of this state, or any certificate to conduct business in this state, if it is not organized by the laws of this state.

The section also provides that all property, real or personal, including money, used in the course of, intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through conduct in violation of a provision of chapter 796 is subject to civil forfeiture to the state under sections 932.701-932.706.⁷

Local administrative action to abate prostitution related nuisances:

Section 893.138, F.S. gives a county or municipality the authority, by ordinance, to create an administrative board to hear complaints regarding nuisances described in the section. If the board declares a place or premises to be a public nuisance, it may enter an order requiring the owner of the place or premises to adopt a procedure to abate the nuisance or it may enter an order prohibiting:

- 1. The maintaining of the ordinance;
- 2. The operating or maintaining of the place or premises, including the closure of the place or premises or any part, thereof; or
- 3. The conduct, operation or maintenance of any business or activity on the premises which is conducive to such nuisance.

This section provides that any place or premises that has been used on more than two occasions within a 6-month period as the site of a violation of the prostitution statute, s. 796.07, may be declared to be a public nuisance, and such nuisance may be abated pursuant to the procedures provided in the section. The bill expands this to apply to a place or premises that has been used on more than two occasions within a 6-month period as the site of a violation of any offense in chapter 796, rather than only a violation of s. 796.07, F.S.

Places declared a nuisance: Section 823.05, F.S. provides, in part, that whoever erects, establishes, continues or maintains, owns or leases any building, booth, tent or place which tends to annoy the community or injure the health of the community or any place or prostitution, assignation or lewdness shall be deemed guilty of maintaining a nuisance. The section provides that such places shall be abated or enjoined as provided in section 60.05 and 60.06, F.S.

⁶ Chapter 561 relates to alcoholic beverages and tobacco.

⁷ Sections 932.701-932.707, F.S. are known as the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act. Contraband includes any real property or personal property used in the commission of any felony or obtained as a result of a violation of the Florida Contraband Forfeiture Act. An order of forfeiture gives the law enforcement agency that seized the property the right or title to the contraband property. The law enforcement agency can then retain the property for the agency's use or sell the property.

Section 60.05, F.S. provides that when any nuisance as defined in s. 823.05 exists, the Attorney General, state attorney, city attorney, county attorney, or any citizen of the county may sue in the name of the state to enjoin the nuisance, the person or persons maintaining it, and the owner or agent of the building or ground on which the nuisance exists. The court may issue a temporary injunction enjoining the nuisance and after trial, may issue a permanent injunction.

The bill amends s. 823.05, F.S. to provide that any place, structure, building or part or trailer of other conveyance that has been used:

- 1. On more than two occasions within a 6-month period, as the site of a violation of chapter 796;
- 2. On more than two occasions within a 6-month period, as the site of the unlawful sale, delivery, manufacture, or cultivation of any controlled substance;
- 3. On one occasion as the site of the unlawful possession of a controlled substance, where such possession constitutes a felony and that has been previously used on more than one occasion as the site of the unlawful sale, delivery, manufacture, or cultivation of any controlled substance;
- 4. By a criminal street gang for the purpose of conducting a pattern of criminal street gang activity as defined by s. 874.03; or
- 5. On more than two occasions within a 6-month period, as the site of a violation of s. 812.019 relating to dealing in stolen property may be declared a public nuisance and abated or enjoined as provide in section 60.05 and 60.06, F.S.

Offense severity ranking chart: The bill amends the offense severity ranking chart to include the offense of a third or subsequent prostitution violation within level 1; furthering criminal activity prohibited in chapter 796 in level 2; deriving support from prostitution proceeds in level 4; sex trafficking in level 8; sex trafficking involving a minor and selling or buying of minors in sex trafficking in level 9.

Section 17. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 943.0435, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

943.0435 Sexual offenders required to register with the department; penalty.--

- (1) As used in this section, the term:
- (a)1. "Sexual offender" means a person who meets the criteria in sub-subparagraph a., sub-subparagraph b., sub-subparagraph c., or sub-subparagraph d., as follows:
- a.(I) Has been convicted of committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses proscribed in the following statutes in this state or similar offenses in another jurisdiction: s. 787.01, s. 787.02, or s. 787.025(2)(c), where the victim is a minor and the defendant is not the victim's parent or guardian; s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10); s. 794.05; s. 796.03; former s. 796.035; s. 796.045(2); s. 800.04; s. 825.1025; s. 827.071; s. 847.0133; s. 847.0135, excluding s. 847.0135(4); s. 847.0137; s. 847.0138; s. 847.0145; or s. 985.701(1); or any similar offense committed in this state which has been redesignated from a former statute number to one of those listed in this sub-sub-subparagraph; and
- (II) Has been released on or after October 1, 1997, from the sanction imposed for any conviction of an offense described in sub-sub-subparagraph (I). For purposes of sub-sub-subparagraph (I), a sanction imposed in this state or in any other jurisdiction includes, but is not limited to, a fine, probation, community control, parole, conditional release, control release, or incarceration in a state prison, federal prison, private correctional facility, or local detention facility;

- b. Establishes or maintains a residence in this state and who has not been designated as a sexual predator by a court of this state but who has been designated as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in another state or jurisdiction and was, as a result of such designation, subjected to registration or community or public notification, or both, or would be if the person were a resident of that state or jurisdiction, without regard to whether the person otherwise meets the criteria for registration as a sexual offender;
- c. Establishes or maintains a residence in this state who is in the custody or control of, or under the supervision of, any other state or jurisdiction as a result of a conviction for committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses proscribed in the following statutes or similar offense in another jurisdiction: s. 787.01, s. 787.02, or s. 787.025(2)(c), where the victim is a minor and the defendant is not the victim's parent or guardian; s. 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10); s. 794.05; s. 796.03; former s. 796.035; s. 796.045(2); s. 800.04; s. 825.1025; s. 827.071; s. 847.0133; s. 847.0135, excluding s. 847.0135(4); s. 847.0137; s. 847.0138; s. 847.0145; or s. 985.701(1); or any similar offense committed in this state which has been redesignated from a former statute number to one of those listed in this subsubparagraph; or

d. On or after July 1, 2007, has been adjudicated delinquent for committing, or attempting, soliciting, or conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses proscribed in the following statutes in this state or similar offenses in another jurisdiction when the juvenile was 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense:

(I) Section 794.011, excluding s. 794.011(10);

- (II) Section 800.04(4)(b) where the victim is under 12 years of age or where the court finds sexual activity by the use of force or coercion;
- (III) Section 800.04(5)(c)1. where the court finds molestation involving unclothed genitals; or
- (IV) Section 800.04(5)(d) where the court finds the use of force or coercion and unclothed genitals.
- 2. For all qualifying offenses listed in sub-subparagraph (1)(a)1.d., the court shall make a written finding of the age of the offender at the time of the offense.

For each violation of a qualifying offense listed in this subsection, the court shall make a written finding of the age of the victim at the time of the offense. For a violation of s. 800.04(4), the court shall additionally make a written finding indicating that the offense did or did not involve sexual activity and indicating that the offense did or did not involve force or coercion. For a violation of s. 800.04(5), the court shall additionally make a written finding that the offense did or did not involve unclothed genitals or genital area and that the offense did or did not involve the use of force or coercion.

1030 Section 18. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 1031 944.606, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 1032 944.606 Sexual offenders; notification upon release.--1033 (1) As used in this section: 1034 (b) "Sexual offender" means a person who has been 1035 convicted of committing, or attempting, soliciting, or 1036 conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses proscribed in 1037 the following statutes in this state or similar offenses in 1038 another jurisdiction: s. 787.01, s. 787.02, or s. 787.025(2)(c), 1039 where the victim is a minor and the defendant is not the 1040 victim's parent or quardian; s. 794.011, excluding s. 1041 794.011(10); s. 794.05; s. 796.03; former s. 796.035; s. 1042 796.045(2); s. 800.04; s. 825.1025; s. 827.071; s. 847.0133; s. 1043 847.0135, excluding s. 847.0135(4); s. 847.0137; s. 847.0138; s. 1044 847.0145; or s. 985.701(1); or any similar offense committed in 1045 this state which has been redesignated from a former statute 1046 number to one of those listed in this subsection, when the 1047 department has received verified information regarding such 1048 conviction; an offender's computerized criminal history record is not, in and of itself, verified information. 1049 1050 Section 19. Paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 1051 944.607, Florida Statutes, is amended to read: 1052 944.607 Notification to Department of Law Enforcement of 1053 information on sexual offenders. --1054 (1) As used in this section, the term: 1055 (a) "Sexual offender" means a person who is in the custody or control of, or under the supervision of, the department or is 1056 in the custody of a private correctional facility: 1057

1058 1. On or after October 1, 1997, as a result of a 1059 conviction for committing, or attempting, soliciting, or 1060 conspiring to commit, any of the criminal offenses proscribed in 1061 the following statutes in this state or similar offenses in 1062 another jurisdiction: s. 787.01, s. 787.02, or s. 787.025(2)(c), 1063 where the victim is a minor and the defendant is not the 1064 victim's parent or guardian; s. 794.011, excluding s. 1065 794.011(10); s. 794.05; s. 796.03; former s. 796.035; s. 1066 796.045(2); s. 800.04; s. 825.1025; s. 827.071; s. 847.0133; s. 1067 847.0135, excluding s. 847.0135(4); s. 847.0137; s. 847.0138; s. 1068 847.0145; or s. 985.701(1); or any similar offense committed in 1069 this state which has been redesignated from a former statute 1070 number to one of those listed in this paragraph; or

2. Who establishes or maintains a residence in this state and who has not been designated as a sexual predator by a court of this state but who has been designated as a sexual predator, as a sexually violent predator, or by another sexual offender designation in another state or jurisdiction and was, as a result of such designation, subjected to registration or community or public notification, or both, or would be if the person were a resident of that state or jurisdiction, without regard as to whether the person otherwise meets the criteria for registration as a sexual offender.

Substitute Amendment for Amendment (No. 4) by Representative Harrell (with title amendment)

Remove line(s) 57-446 and insert:

(d) "Mental injury" shall mean multiple instances of injury caused by the same abuser to the intellectual or psychological capacity of a child as evidenced by a discernible and substantial impairment in the ability of the child to function within the normal range of performance and behavior as supported by expert testimony. A person may not give expert testimony regarding mental injury unless that person is a licensed physician under ch. 458 or ch. 459, board certified in psychiatry and has devoted professional time during the three years immediately preceding the date of the occurrence to the active clinical practice of, or consulting with respect to, a specialty that includes the evaluation, diagnosis, or treatment of the condition that is the subject of the offense.

(e) (3) (a) "Neglect of a child" means:

1. A caregiver's failure or omission to provide a child with the care, supervision, and services necessary to maintain the child's physical and mental health, including, but not limited to, food, nutrition, clothing, shelter, supervision, medicine, and medical services that a prudent person would consider essential for the well-being of the child; or

A caregiver's failure to make a reasonable effort to protect a child from abuse, neglect, or exploitation by another person.

Except as otherwise provided in the section, neglect of a child may be based on repeated conduct or on a single incident or omission that results in, or could reasonably be expected to result in, serious physical or mental injury, or a substantial risk of death, to a child.

- (2) OFFENSES.--
- (a) A person who commits aggravated child abuse commits a felony of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (b) A person who willfully or by culpable negligence neglects a child and in so doing causes great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the second degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (c) A person who knowingly or willfully abuses a child without causing great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.
- (d) (c) A person who willfully or by culpable negligence neglects a child without causing great bodily harm, permanent disability, or permanent disfigurement to the child commits a felony of the third degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082, s. 775.083, or s. 775.084.

(3) Affirmative defenses. --

- (a) If the offense is based solely on oral statements of the defendant, it shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section that the conduct giving rise to the offense was solely speech protected by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution. This affirmative defense shall not apply to speech that was directed to inciting or producing imminent lawless action and that was likely to incite or produce such action.
- (b) If the offense is based soley on a claim of mental injury because of a caregiver's failure to make a reasonable effort to protect a child from an abuser other than the defendant, it shall be an affirmative defense to a prosecution under this section that the defendant was a victim of an act of domestic violence or had reasonable cause to believe that he or she was about to become a victim of an act of domestic violence as defined in s. 741.28, and the defendant had reasonable cause to believe that the action or failure to act was necessary in order for the defendant to escape from, or protect himself or herself from, the domestic violence or to preserve the minor or incompetent person from exposure to domestic violence. However, this affirmative defense shall not be available to any person in relation to instances of child abuse arising after the defense has been previously asserted with respect to the same abuser.
- (4) For purposes of this section, "maliciously" means wrongfully, intentionally, and without legal justification or excuse. Maliciousness may be established by circumstances from which one could conclude that a reasonable parent would not have engaged in the damaging acts toward the child for any valid reason and that the primary purpose of the acts was to cause the victim unjustifiable pain or injury.

Amendment No. 5 (for drafter's use only)

Section 2. Paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of section 775.084, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

HOUSE AMENDMENT FOR COUNCIL/COMMITTEE PURPOSES Amendment No. 5 (for drafter's use only)

- (f) Any aggravated child abuse as provided in s.
 827.03(2)(a);
- Section 8. Paragraph (a) of subsection (3) and subsection (13) of section 960.03, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:
 960.03 Definitions; ss. 960.01-960.28.--As used in ss.
- 960.01-960.28, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:
 - (3) "Crime" means:

- (a) A felony or misdemeanor offense committed by either an adult or a juvenile which results in physical injury or death, including a felony or misdemeanor offense committed by either an adult or a juvenile which results in psychiatric or psychological injury to a person less than 18 years of age who was not physically injured by the criminal act. The term also includes any such criminal act which is committed within this state but which falls exclusively within federal jurisdiction.
 - (13) "Victim" means:
- (a) A person who suffers personal physical injury or death as a direct result of a crime;
- (b) Except as otherwise set forth in paragraph (3)(a) concerning injuries to minors, a person less than 16 years of age who was present at the scene of a crime, saw or heard the crime, and suffered a psychiatric or psychological injury because of the crime, but who was not physically injured; or
- (c) A person against whom a forcible felony was committed and who suffers a psychiatric or psychological injury as a direct result of that crime but who does not otherwise sustain a personal physical injury or death.

The excluded trustees are relieved of any obligation to review, inquire, investigate, or make recommendations or evaluations with respect to the exercise of the power. The trustee or trustees having the power to direct or prevent actions of the trustees shall be liable to the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power as if the excluded trustees were not in office and shall have the exclusive obligation to account to and to defend any action brought by the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power.

Section 2. Subsection (10) of section 736.0802, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

736.0802 Duty of loyalty.--

- trust proceeding from the assets of the trust may be made by the trustee without the approval of any person and without court authorization, unless the court orders otherwise as provided in paragraph (b). except that court authorization shall be required if an action has been filed or defense asserted against the trustee based upon a breach of trust. Court authorization is not required if the action or defense is later withdrawn or dismissed by the party that is alleging a breach of trust or resolved without a determination by the court that the trustee has committed a breach of trust.
- (a) If a claim or defense based upon a breach of trust is made against a trustee in a proceeding, the trustee shall provide written notice to each qualified beneficiary of the trust, whose share of the trust may be affected by the payment of attorney's fees and costs, of the intention to pay costs or attorney's fees incurred in the proceeding from the trust prior to making payment. The written notice shall be delivered by sending a copy by any commercial delivery service requiring a signed receipt, by any form of mail requiring a signed receipt, or as provided in the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure for service of process. The written notice shall inform each qualified beneficiary of the trust, whose share of the trust may be affected by the payment of attorney's fees and costs, of the right to apply to the court for an order prohibiting the trustee from paying attorney's fees or costs from trust assets. If a trustee is served with a motion for an order prohibiting the trustee from paying attorney's fees or costs in the proceeding and the trustee pays attorney's fees or costs before an order is entered on the motion, then the trustee and the trustee's attorneys who have been paid attorneys' fees or costs from trust assets to defend against the claim or defense are subject to the remedies in paragraphs (b) and (c).

(b) If a claim or defense based upon breach of trust is made against a trustee in a proceeding, a party must obtain a court order to prohibit the trustee from paying costs or attorney's fees from trust assets. To obtain an order prohibiting payment of costs or attorney's fees from trust assets, a party must make a reasonable showing by evidence in the record or by proffering evidence that provides a reasonable basis for a court to conclude that there has been a breach of trust. finds good cause, the court shall enter an order prohibiting the payment of further attorney's fees and costs from the assets of the trust and shall order that attorney's fees or costs previously paid from assets of the trust be refunded. An order entered under this paragraph shall not limit a trustee's right to seek an order permitting the payment of some or all of the attorney's fees or costs incurred in the proceeding from trust assets, including any fees required to be refunded, after the claim or defense is finally determined by the court. If a claim or defense based upon a breach of trust is withdrawn, dismissed or resolved without a determination by the court that the trustee committed a breach of trust after the entry of an order prohibiting payment of attorney's fees and costs pursuant to this paragraph, the trustee may pay costs or attorneys' fees incurred in the proceeding from the assets of the trust without further court authorization.

- (c) If the court orders a refund under paragraph (b), the court may enter such sanctions as are appropriate if a refund is not made as directed by the court, including striking defenses or pleadings filed by the trustee. Nothing herein shall limit the other remedies and sanctions the court may employ for the failure to refund timely.
- (d) Nothing in this subsection shall limit the power of the court to review fees and costs or the right of any interested persons to challenge fees and costs after payment, after an accounting or after conclusion of the litigation.
- (e) Notice under paragraph (a) is not required if the action or defense is later withdrawn or dismissed by the party that is alleging a breach of trust or resolved without a determination by the court that the trustee has committed a breach of trust.

Section 3. Subsection (3) of section 736.1008, Florida Statutes, is amended, subsection (6) of that section is renumbered as subsection (7), and new subsection (6) is added to that section, to read:

736.1008 Limitations on proceedings against trustees.--

- (3) When a trustee has not issued a final trust accounting or has not given written notice to the beneficiary of the availability of the trust records for examination and that claims with respect to matters not adequately disclosed may be barred, a claim against the trustee for breach of trust based on a matter not adequately disclosed in a trust disclosure document is barred as provided in chapter 95 and accrues when the beneficiary has actual knowledge of:
- (a) The facts upon which the claim is based if such actual knowledge is established by clear and convincing evidence; or
- (b) The trustee's repudiation of the trust or adverse possession of trust assets, and is barred as provided in chapter 95.

Paragraph (a) applies to claims based upon acts or omissions occurring on or after July 1, 2008.

- (6) (a) Notwithstanding subsections (1), (2), and (3), all claims by a beneficiary against a trustee are barred:
 - 1. Upon the later of:

- a. Ten years after the date the trust terminates, the trustee resigns, or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends if the beneficiary had actual knowledge of the existence of the trust and their status as a beneficiary throughout the 10-year period; or
- b. Twenty years after the date of the act or omission of the trustee which is complained of if the beneficiary had actual

- 2. Forty years after the date the trust terminates, the trustee resigns, or the fiduciary relationship between the trustee and the beneficiary otherwise ends.
- 3. When a beneficiary shows by clear and convincing evidence that a trustee actively concealed facts supporting a cause of action any existing statute of repose shall be expanded by 30 years.
- (b) For purposes of sub-sub-paragraph (6)(a)1.b., the failure of the trustee to take corrective action is not a separate act or omission and does not extend the period of repose established by this subsection.
- (c) This subsection applies to claims based upon acts or omissions occurring on or after July 1, 2008.
- (7) (6) This section applies to trust accountings for accounting periods beginning on or after July 1, 2007, and to written reports, other than trust accountings, received by a beneficiary on or after July 1, 2007.
 - Section 4. This act shall take effect July 1, 2008.

Amendment (with title amendment)

Between line(s) 22 and 23 and insert:

Section 2. Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 61.14, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

61.14 Enforcement and modification of support, maintenance, or alimony agreements or orders.--

(1)

- (b)1. The court may reduce or terminate an award of alimony upon specific written findings by the court that since the granting of a divorce and the award of alimony a supportive relationship does exist or has existed between the obligee and a person with whom the obligee resides. On the issue of whether alimony should be reduced or terminated under this paragraph, the burden is on the obligor to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that a supportive relationship exists.
- 2. In determining whether an existing award of alimony should be reduced or terminated because of an alleged supportive relationship between an obligee and a person who is not related

- by consanguinity or affinity and with whom the obligee resides, the court shall elicit the nature and extent of the relationship in question. The court shall give consideration, without limitation, to circumstances, including, but not limited to, the following, in determining the relationship of an obligee to another person:
 - a. The extent to which the obligee and the other person have held themselves out as a married couple by engaging in conduct such as using the same last name, using a common mailing address, referring to each other in terms such as "my husband" or "my wife," or otherwise conducting themselves in a manner that evidences a permanent supportive relationship.
 - b. The period of time that the obligee has resided with the other person in a permanent place of abode.
 - c. The extent to which the obligee and the other person have pooled their assets or income or otherwise exhibited financial interdependence.
 - d. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has supported the other, in whole or in part.
 - e. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has performed valuable services for the other.
 - f. The extent to which the obligee or the other person has performed valuable services for the other's company or employer.
 - g. Whether the obligee and the other person have worked together to create or enhance anything of value.
 - h. Whether the obligee and the other person have jointly contributed to the purchase of any real or personal property.
 - i. Evidence in support of a claim that the obligee and the other person have an express agreement regarding property sharing or support.

- j. Evidence in support of a claim that the obligee and the other person have an implied agreement regarding property sharing or support.
- k. Whether the obligee and the other person have provided support to the children of one another, regardless of any legal duty to do so.
- 3. This paragraph does not abrogate the requirement that every marriage in this state be solemnized under a license, does not recognize a common law marriage as valid, and does not recognize a de facto marriage. This paragraph recognizes only that relationships do exist that provide economic support equivalent to a marriage and that alimony terminable on remarriage may be reduced or terminated upon the establishment of equivalent equitable circumstances as described in this paragraph. The existence of a conjugal relationship, though it may be relevant to the nature and extent of the relationship, is not necessary for the application of the provisions of this paragraph.
