HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
2013 LOCAL BILL AMENDMENT FORM

Prior to consideration of a substantive amendment to a local bill, the chair of the legislative delegation must certify, by signing this Amendment Form, that the amendment is approved by a majority of the legislative delegation. House local bill policy does not require a delegation meeting to formally approve an amendment. All substantive committee, subcommittee, and floor amendments must be accompanied by a completed original Amendment Form which has been provided to and reviewed by Local & Federal Affairs Committee staff prior to consideration. An Amendment Form is not required for technical amendments.
