Subject: Piggyback Agreement utilizing Palm Beach County's Contract 500636/LI – Water and Environmental Lobbyist Services

Dear Mr. Balido,

The District's Purchasing and Inventory Control Policy 18-08-02A allows for the procurement of goods and services at the same terms, conditions and pricing established in competitively solicited contract awards by other public agencies. The District would like to utilize Contract 500636/LI awarded by Palm Beach County to Anfield Consulting Group, Inc. This piggyback agreement will be effective from the last date signed by both Parties below, for the remainder of the contract through 7-15-2023, to acquire state lobbyist services. Per the contract, there is an option to renew for a remaining two (2) additional, one (1) year periods. Please forward any approved extensions from Palm Beach County to the District, for consideration of any renewals to be granted by the District.

By signing below, Anfield Consulting Group, Inc. agrees that it will extend to the District the same pricing for all items or services awarded pursuant to the contract and its amendments, and further agrees that all transactions relating to the District's procurement of said items or services shall be governed by the terms and conditions in the agreement, and its amendments.

Sincerely,

Bee Ling Wheaton

Good afternoon, Ed.

This contract doesn't show the compensation. Would you please either tell me in an email or send me the contract showing the compensation?

Thank you.
